Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Labor Day is an opportunity to take stock of the ways workers are honored and respected. As Pope Francis pointed out, "Work is fundamental to the dignity of a person. . . . It gives one the ability to maintain oneself, one's family, to contribute to the growth of one's own nation."

For many people, especially for the poor, who may be unemployed or underemployed, the struggle to support their families is a daily battle. Please consider supporting the Catholic Ministries Appeal which supports the programs and services that assist families and individuals struggling in our communities.

PLEASE CONSIDER MAKING A GIFT TO THE 2021 Catholic Ministries Appeal! Every Gift Makes a Difference in the Lives of Others.

Breaking Open the Word

Reflecting on next Sunday's Gospel before you come to Mass can bring so much more meaning to your experience of the Liturgy. Here's the Gospel for next Sunday. How does this Gospel touch your life?

September 12, 2021

Twenty-fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Mk 8:27-35

Jesus and his disciples set out for the villages of Caesarea Philippi. Along the way he asked his disciples, "Who do people say that I am?" They said in reply, "John the Baptist, others Elijah, still others one of the prophets." And he asked them, "But who do you say that I am?" Peter said to him in reply, "You are the Christ." Then he warned them not to tell anyone about him. He began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer greatly and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and rise after three days. He spoke this openly. Then Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. At this he turned around and, looking at his disciples, rebuked Peter and said, "Get behind me, Satan. You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do." He summoned the crowd with his disciples and said to them, "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and that of the gospel will save it."

Reflection Questions

- What did Jesus ask His disciples? What did Peter answer when Jesus asked who the disciples thought He was?
- What does Jesus tell His disciples next? Who objects to this? How does Jesus respond? Then what does Jesus tell His disciples?
- Quite understandably, Peter didn't recognize this second part of Jesus' teaching as good news. How might we understand what Jesus teaches in today's Gospel as good news?
- Do you sometimes forget to let God be God for you? That is, do you sometimes get discouraged because God doesn't act in your world in the ways that you expect? Pray that you will remember that God is always working for the world's salvation in ways that are beyond your imagination.

A Prayer For Labor Day

Lord on this Labor Day, we thank You for the blessing of work. We ask for strength to complete each day. We ask for rest when we are weary. We ask for Your guidance and hope for everyone seeking employment. We ask that You be with those whose faces we might never see but who work tirelessly each day for the good of all of us.
 Amen.

"Come to me, all you who labor and are heavy burdened, And I shall give you rest."

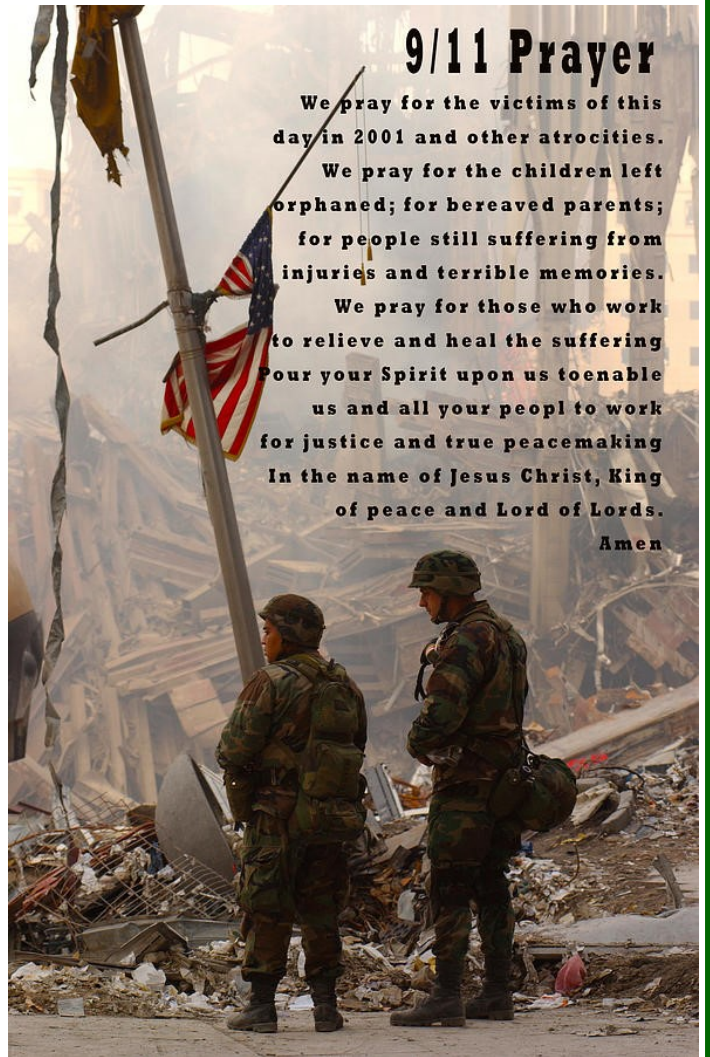

Matthew 11:28-30

Our Parish office and thrift shop/barn will be closed Monday, September 6th, in observance of Labor day.

9/11 Prayer

We pray for the victims of this day in 2001 and other atrocities. We pray for the children left orphaned; for bereaved parents; for people still suffering from injuries and terrible memories. We pray for those who work to relieve and heal the suffering. Pour your Spirit upon us to enable us and all your people to work for justice and true peacemaking. In the name of Jesus Christ, King of peace and Lord of Lords.
 Amen
