First Sunday of Lent

A Message from the Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters of St. Gerard's,

This week, we begin our Lenten Mission. Our guest speaker is Fr. John Sureau, Pastor of St. John the Evangelist Church in Center Moriches. Ordained by Bishop Murphy on December 3, 2011, Fr. John began his priestly ministry at the Parish of the Holy Cross in Nesconset. Fr. John served as a deacon at St. Anne's Church in Garden City, NY from June 2011 to December 2011. In June 2011, he was appointed Associate Pastor of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church in Lindenhurst.

Fr. John is originally from West Islip. He was born and raised there, attending Our Lady of Lourdes School and St. John the Baptist Diocesan High School. After graduation from high school, Fr. John attended St. Joseph's College in Patchogue and continued his education at SUNY Stonybrook, the Seminary of the Immaculate Conception in Huntington the Graduate School of Social Service at Fordham University and the Graduate School of Education at Fordham University where he earned his Ph.D. in Educational Administration. Fr. John holds additional degrees in Education, Theology, and Social Work. He is a licensed clinical social worker.

Prior to entering the Seminary of the Immaculate Conception as a seminarian, Fr. John served as a campus minister, social worker and teacher at St. John the Baptist Diocesan High School and as the Coordinator of Worship at Our Lady of Lourdes R.C. Church in West Islip. Additionally, he worked as social worker at Good Samaritan Hospital in West Islip. Since 2005, Fr. John has been a social worker at Hope House Ministries, working primarily with young people and their families impacted by addiction. In addition to his primary work and ministry here, Fr. John continues to offer his time at Hope House as a clinical social worker and assists the Office of Prison Ministry in the Diocese of Rockville Centre.

In May 2017, tragedy struck Fr. John's parish in Center moriches when a man tried to set fire to the church. Sadly, there was extensive damage that rendered the worship space unusable. Fr. John shepherded his parishioners through both the emotional trauma of the experience as well as the efforts to rebuild their church. Like us here at St. Gerard's, Fr. John knows well the process of rebuilding and longing for a project to be completed. His deep spirituality coupled with extensive training and good sense of humor, Fr. John will surely inspire you this week.

Please join us Thursday evening at 7:00pm in our new church! This time of prayer will be live-streamed and recorded. Please visit our website, www.stgmajella.org, for more information.

Yours in Christ,

ST. GERARD'S 2022 LENTEN RETREAT

As we anticipate with great joy the Mass of Dedication of our new church on April 9th, we will spend our Lenten Retreat together considering how this church in which we worship is a reflection of both the Easter Paschal Mystery and our lives as disciples today.

Family Prayers for Lent

One of the real challenges that we too often find in our busy lives is finding time to be together as a family. It is especially difficult to find opportunities to pray together. Here are a few possibilities for praying as a family during Lent or at any other time of the year.

Prayer before Meals: Meals are a natural time to pray as a family. We can begin by simply saying, "Let's pray," or "Let's pause for a minute to give thanks." This can be a brief prayer. Brief prayer doesn't have to be without substance or power.

In the Morning: It can be quite transformative of our family bonds, in faith, to pause very briefly to pray together in the morning. This might be a spontaneous prayer, such as while we are lying in bed. When we are rushing around one another in the kitchen and grabbing breakfast, it can be wonderful to pause to pray and simply ask the Lord to be with each of us in what we are about to do.

Other times: Such as cleaning up or in preparation for guests coming for dinner or for an overnight slumber party. We might share the responsibility for designing the family prayer for special occasions: birthdays, anniversaries, the beginning and end of a school year, the beginning of a new endeavor.

Simple Rituals- We can easily add gestures that bring powerful prayer to our family life. One of the simplest and most natural gestures is to trace a cross on a loved one's forehead.

Praying for One Another- The most important part of family prayer is perhaps the easiest to overlook: how we hold one another up to the Lord. Even when we are not physically together as a praying family, we want to pray for one another.

May our Lord bless our praying, especially at home, in the community of our family, in these days of Lent.

Breaking Open the Word

Reflecting on next Sunday's Gospel before you come to Mass can bring so much more meaning to your experience of the Liturgy. Here's the Gospel for next Sunday. How does this Gospel touch your life?

March 13, 2022

Second Sunday of Lent

Luke 9:28b-36

Jesus took Peter, John, and James and went up the mountain to pray. While he was praying his face changed in appearance and his clothing became dazzling white. And behold, two men were conversing with him, Moses and Elijah, who appeared in glory and spoke of his exodus that he was going to accomplish in Jerusalem. Peter and his companions had been overcome by sleep, but becoming fully awake, they saw his glory and the two men standing with him. As they were about to part from him, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good that we are here; let us make three tents, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." But he did not know what he was saying. While he was still speaking, a cloud came and cast a shadow over them, and they became frightened when they entered the cloud. Then from the cloud came a voice that said, "This is my chosen Son; listen to him." After the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. They fell silent and did not at that time tell anyone what they had seen.

Reflection Questions

- What happened to Jesus during this time of prayer? What are Peter, James, and John doing while Jesus is praying? What do they see when they awaken?
- Not only did God show Peter, James, and John who Jesus really is, but he also told them to do something. What was it?
- During Lent, we slow down and seek out time for quiet prayer. In silence we can be more attentive to Jesus who wants us to follow his word and example. Our Lenten practices of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving help us to listen and follow Jesus more faithfully. Spend some time in quiet this coming week.

Prayer For Ukraine

O Lord our God, look down with mercy on the Ukrainian people. Protect and save them from the unjust aggressors who seek to subdue them. Grant them steadfast trust in your mercy and protection. O Mother of God, who gave us your miraculous icon at Zarvanytsia, intercede for the Ukrainian people, who run to the shelter of your mercy in their times of need. O Lord Jesus Christ, have mercy on us. Grant peace and protection to the people of Ukraine. Give them strength and courage to defend what is good, right, and holy. Keep them safe from harm and provide for all their needs, both temporal and spiritual. Hear our prayers, O Lord, and deliver us from distress, for You are merciful and compassionate and love mankind. To You we give glory: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, now and forever and ever. Amen.

(Prayer written by Carrie Chuff, a Ukrainian Greek Catholic mom and contributing writer at Catholic Icing.)

We invite you to join us for the Stations of the Cross every Friday during Lent at 7pm. We will gather in the Parish Hall. It is a beautiful opportunity for prayer and reflection on Jesus' ultimate sacrifice of Himself.

Lent 2022

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

Lent is a journey from the desert of death to the springs of new life. We follow Jesus into the wilderness of the desert to renew our baptismal covenant with the Father. During this sacred time, we die to sin, and washed clean from our self-centeredness and attachment to the world, rise to divine grace and love. As we enter this privileged season, let us reflect once more on the three means we employ during this forty-day journey of penance and conversion: prayer, fasting, and almsgiving.

Prayer. Prayer is most simply a conversation with God, and St. Paul reminds us that this conversation must be continual. The Apostle to the Gentiles enjoins us to “pray at all times” (Eph 6:18), “pray without ceasing” (1 Thess 5:17), and “be constant in prayer” (Rom 12:12). To pray this way requires effort. It demands silence, artful listening, and remaining in the presence of God. This Lent we remember two powerful ways we enter into this holy conversation: by sitting in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament and through lectio divina, a prayerful reading of Sacred Scripture.

Fasting. The Church Fathers speak extensively on the power of fasting to break sin and open our hearts to the grace of God. Saint Peter Chrysologus writes: “Fasting is the soul of prayer, mercy is the lifeblood of fasting. So if you pray, fast; if you fast, show mercy; if you want your petition to be heard, hear the petition of others. If you do not close your ear to others, you open God’s ear to yourself” (Sermo 43: PL 52, 320, 322). Let us remember, too, that bodily fasting is useless unless it is joined with spiritual fasting, that is, fasting from our passions.

Almsgiving. Scripture brings the three marks of our Lenten journey together and puts the emphasis on the last: “Prayer and fasting are good, but better than either is almsgiving accompanied by righteousness ... It is better to give alms than to store up gold; for almsgiving saves one from death and expiates every sin. Those who regularly give alms shall enjoy a full life” (Tob 12:8-9). Almsgiving is better because it points to charity. We remember we are not only to give materially to those in need but also give of ourselves as we love God and neighbor.

Last October, Pope Francis invited the Church into a synod on synodality. The Holy Father wants the Church to journey together in a multi-year process listening to each other, hearing the Word and celebrating the Eucharist. As we journey towards Easter, let us be united in mind and spirit. May the spiritual exercises of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving prepare us for Easter and an experience of the power of God, which “dispels wickedness, washes faults away, restores innocence to the fallen, and joy to mourners, drives out hatred, fosters concord, and brings down the mighty” (The Easter Proclamation - Exsultet). Then, alive in Christ, we can go forward evangelizing, as Pope Francis would want, with parrhesia: “Boldness, enthusiasm, the freedom to speak out, [and] apostolic fervor” (Gaudete et Exsultate 129).

May the loving presence of the Blessed Virgin Mary, who remained faithful to her son at the foot of the cross, protect and sustain us in our Lenten journey.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend John O. Barres
Bishop of Rockville Centre
