Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion

A Message from the Pastor

I was glad when they said to me,
“Let us go to the house of the Lord!” (Ps. 122)

These words of the psalmist capture, most eloquently and succinctly, the joy in my heart and, as I am sure, the joy of us all.
This weekend’s celebration of the Dedication of our Church and the beginning of Holy Week are the cause of the great happiness that is ours as Catholics!

I wish to express my most profound gratitude to all those who made the weekend’s celebrations beautiful, dignified, and joyful.
At a later date, and so that they can be recognized fittingly, I will enumerate the many people and local businesses that gave so generously.
For now, to all of you who have given so much to this historic moment, please know that your efforts and contributions are the sole reason we have accomplished all that we have!

We recall, this weekend, how Our Lord, Himself, went up to the house of the Lord, the sacred temple in Jerusalem, to complete His life’s mission – the salvation of the world! Indeed, the work of the Cross is inextricably linked to the work of the temple as a setting for God coming to humanity, and for humanity being saved by God.
As we will sing at the Easter Vigil, *“O love, O charity beyond all telling.
To ransom a slave, you gave away your Son.”*
Indeed, we have been ransomed from sorrow and despair, sin and death by the love of Christ unfurled on the Cross.

Please be sure to set aside time this week for prayer and reflection as we renew our identity as the redeemed children of God, purchased by the blood of His only begotten Son.
We hope to see you at some of the many opportunities for communal prayer, especially the principal liturgies –
Holy Thursday evening, Good Friday afternoon, and of course, Easter.
These are the days that make us who we are.
They “do not [merely] celebrate what once happened to Jesus but what is now happening among us as a people called to conversion, gathered in faith, and gifted with the Spirit of holiness” (Three Days of Pascha by Nathan Mitchell).
This is the story of our people and our lives. Join us – in our new church – for this celebration of being a new creation!

Yours in Christ,

April 10, 2022

Breaking Open the Word

Reflecting on next Sunday's Gospel before you come to Mass can bring so much more meaning to your experience of the Liturgy. Here's the Gospel for next Sunday. How does this Gospel touch your life?

April 17, 2022

Easter Sunday

The Resurrection of the Lord

Jn 20:1-9

On the first day of the week, Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning, while it was still dark, and saw the stone removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and told them, "They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don't know where they put him." So Peter and the other disciple went out and came to the tomb. They both ran, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and arrived at the tomb first; he bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed. For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead.

Reflection Questions

- What day of the week did Mary go back to the tomb where Jesus' body was placed? Why did Mary, and the others, wait until Sunday to visit the tomb?
- If you were a friend of Jesus in the first century, would you have wanted to return to the tomb to honor Jesus? What can you do today to honor Jesus?
- How does the fact that the tomb was not quite empty on that first Easter morning confirm that Jesus is indeed risen? What would you conclude about Jesus if you were there with Mary, John and Peter that first Easter morning?

A Palm Sunday Prayer

On this day of great rejoicing, Christ Jesus, when we welcome You as our King and Savior, we also walk in the shadow of Your cross. Hosanna! We cry. Blessed are You who comes in God's name to save us. Hosanna!

Strengthen our faith on this Palm Sunday so that when the time comes to carry the cross we might still call out to You with heartfelt praise. Give us the grace and the courage to follow You this Holy Week from death to resurrection, from darkness to the fullness of light. We need You, O Christ, our Savior. Hosanna!

Amen

To support married couples during this time of social distancing, Worldwide Marriage Encounter is sponsoring virtual marriage experiences. Some are on weekends and are seven sessions on weekdays from 7:00 PM to 9:30 PM. Couples will explore their individual personality styles, improve listening and communication skills, understand God's plan for their marriage, and learn how to keep their relationship a priority. Registration is limited and a $100 application fee is required. For more information or to apply, call Chuck & Maria Reiss at 631-486-8607 or visit them at <https://wwmenyli.org/>.
