Easter Sunday-The Resurrection of the Lord

A Message from the Pastor

“Rejoice, let Mother Church also rejoice arrayed in the lighting of Christ’s glory, let this holy building shake with joy filled with the mighty voices of the people!”

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

These words of the great Easter proclamation, known as the Exsultet, were chanted during the solemn Easter Vigil. Never have those words rung truer than when they were chanted in our new church, reverberating with power in our place of worship. Indeed, we rejoice in the glory of the Resurrection, the moment that forever changed the course of human history.

To say that the last two weeks have been full ones for us here at St. Gerard’s would be the understatement of the century! It was no small task to bring together the many aspects involved in both the Dedication Mass of our new church and then the Sacred Liturgies for Holy Week. I am incredibly grateful to the many who worked tirelessly to make everything so solemn and joyful. I wish to call attention to several people for going above and beyond in the past few weeks to prepare for all the events we’ve had:

The SGM Professional Staff
Chuck Pramnieks, our Director of Music
Catherine Daniels, Director of the Children’s Choir
The Adult and Children’s Choirs
Altar Servers, Lectors and Ushers
Karl Wolf
The Smillie Family
Ellen Beihl

Having completed our Lenten observances, we now embrace the joy and light of the Easter season. May you and your families know the peace that comes only from Christ and rejoice in the hope we have because of His glorious Resurrection!

On behalf of Father Vitus, Deacon Frank and Deacon John, I wish you all a very Happy and Blessed Easter!

Yours in the Risen One,

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

Easter 2022

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

Christ is Risen, Alleluia!

Every Easter, as we celebrate our Lord's victory over death, we delight in the consolation that all is restored through the Resurrection, and we ponder God's relentless invitation to live the divine life given at baptism.

This is the good news of our faith: Christ has conquered death and we are invited to life. This good news needs to be heard time and again. Even when things are bleak, we remember Christ is victorious and that we have been invited to witness to his victory. As Pope Francis says:

“Where all seems to be dead, signs of the resurrection suddenly spring up. It is an irresistible force. Often it seems that God does not exist: all around us we see persistent injustice, evil, indifference and cruelty. But it is also true that in the midst of darkness something new always springs to life and sooner or later produces fruit. On razed land life breaks through, stubbornly yet invincibly. However dark things are, goodness always re-emerges and spreads. Each day in our world beauty is born anew, it rises transformed through the storms of history. Values always tend to reappear under new guises, and human beings have arisen time after time from situations that seemed doomed. Such is the power of the resurrection, and all who evangelize are instruments of that power.”<sup>1</sup>

We know well the bleakness that can overwhelm us. How good it is to recall God's goodness! The Risen Lord moves through the locked doors of fear to lead us, to lead our families and to lead the world to peace. May we never forget God's triumph over death and our baptismal call to be an instrument of that power. May we show the Risen Lord to all we meet.

This Easter, as we rejoice in Christ's Resurrection, let us remember especially those who suffer in Ukraine and the millions who have been displaced by that tragic war. Together, we pray that the Risen Christ bring light to their darkness and give them peace.

Be assured of my prayers for you in these holy and joyful weeks.

Happy Easter!

Sincerely in Christ,

Most Reverend John O. Barres
Bishop of Rockville Centre

Thank You!

Thank you to all who donated to our Easter Food Drive and to our food pantry. We were able to provide over 100 families with Easter baskets, gift cards, and a big bag full of food to make their Easter day extra special. We are humbled and grateful by your kindness and generosity! A special thank you to the outreach volunteers, especially Ann and Mary who put all the baskets together!

We hope you have a blessed and beautiful Easter season!

Breaking Open the Word

Reflecting on next Sunday's Gospel before you come to Mass can bring so much more meaning to your experience of the Liturgy. Here's the Gospel for next Sunday. How does this Gospel touch your life?

April 24, 2022

Second Sunday of Easter

Jn 20:19-31

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained." Thomas, called Didymus, one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples said to him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nail marks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe." Now a week later his disciples were again inside and Thomas was with them. Jesus came, although the doors were locked, and stood in their midst and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe." Thomas answered and said to him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you come to believe because you have seen me?"

Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed." Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples that are not written in this book. But these are written that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that through this belief you may have life in his name.

Reflection Questions

- What day of the week does Jesus appear to the disciples? What is significant about this day in the history of the church?
- How has fear kept the disciples from doing what they know Jesus would want them to do? Have you ever experienced fear that keeps you from accomplishing God's will in your life?
- How has the message of Jesus' resurrection brought peace into your life? Have you had opportunity to help others realize peace in their life because of who Jesus is and what he has done for them?

Lord,

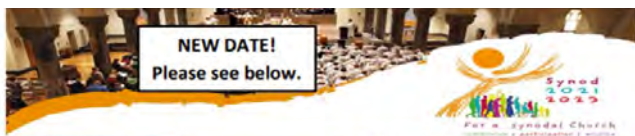

As we gather together as family and friends we invite you once again into our lives. May the hope of your resurrection color our days. May the promise of your spirit working in us light up our lives. May the love you revealed to us shape our giving. May the truth in your word guide our journeys, And may the joy of your kingdom fill our homes. As we gather together underneath the banner of your life, We thank you for all the wonderful food that we can now enjoy, and celebrate your glorious resurrection. Thank you Lord.

Amen
