A Message from the Pastor

IMPORTANT REMINDER!

Town Hall Meeting on Wednesday, May 18th at 7pm in the Parish Hall

Over the past year, I have been speaking with our Finance Committee to identify capital projects that will need to be accomplished in the coming months and years. Some will have to do with completing those facets of the new church that we had to omit for cost savings. Others are enhancements to the entire campus or to specific buildings. Rather than having just a few of us identify what that priority list will consist of, we would like to invite the entire parish to discuss proposed capital projects, the importance that we place on them, and how we will raise the needed funds to complete them.

Please make every effort to join us for this important conversation .

Congratulations, Deacon John, on your 15th Anniversary of Ordination to the Diaconate!

May 19, 2007

We are grateful to God for your ministry among us and wish you many more years of faithful service in our parish and diocese. Ad multos annos!

(l) Deacon John during the Mass of Dedication on April 9th.

Religious Education

Please keep our young parishioners in your prayers as they will be receiving their First Holy Communion this coming weekend. God bless all of them and their families!

 Prayer for a Child's First Communion

Lord Jesus,

Bless the children coming forward to receive Holy Communion for the first time.

May this day be an initial step into a life-long love of the Eucharist.

Give them a hunger for this sacred food so that they turn to you for comfort, guidance, and wisdom as they grow into full discipleship.

Thank you for their innocence and goodness.

May their hands, extended in anticipation of your Body and Blood, inspire all of us to cherish this sacred sacrament.

Breaking Open the Word

Reflecting on next Sunday's Gospel before you come to Mass can bring so much more meaning to your experience of the Liturgy. Here's the Gospel for next Sunday. How does this Gospel touch your life?

May 22, 2022

Sixth Sunday of Easter

Jn 14:23-29

Jesus said to his disciples:

“Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him. Whoever does not love me does not keep my words; yet the word you hear is not mine but that of the Father who sent me.

“I have told you this while I am with you. The Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you.

Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give it to you. Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid.

You heard me tell you, ‘I am going away and I will come back to you.’ If you loved me, you would rejoice that I am going to the Father; for the Father is greater than I.

And now I have told you this before it happens, so that when it happens you may believe.”

Reflection Questions

- What does Jesus mean when he says that he gives us peace but not as the world gives it?
- What title does Jesus use when referring to his Holy Spirit? Why?
- How can you prepare for Pentecost, the day when we celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit, our Advocate?
- Jesus remains with us through the Holy Spirit, who teaches us everything we need to know, reminds us of all that Jesus taught, and brings us peace. Spend some time praying to the Holy Spirit this coming week.

St. Gerard Majella Handkerchiefs

Only one instance is recorded of St. Gerard curing an expectant mother of her illness while he was alive, but there were many women who claimed that they and their children were granted graces through the prayers of Gerard. The famous "handkerchief story" goes like this: While he was leaving the house of a family he had gone to visit, he dropped his handkerchief. A young woman retrieved it, but as she handed it to him, Gerard told her mysteriously, "Keep it. One day it will be of service to you." Although puzzled, the woman did keep it. And a few years later, she faced life threatening complications as she was about to give birth to her first child. She remembered the mysterious hanky and the promise, and asked that it be brought to her in her travail. She held it to her womb and immediately the pain ceased and she delivered a normal, healthy child.

Are you or someone you know expecting, trying to conceive, or ill? St. Gerard Handkerchiefs and prayer cards are available for pickup at the office.
