Pentecost Sunday

A Message from the Pastor

Dear Friends of St. Gerard's,

In earlier generations, there was a tradition during the Confirmation ritual when the Bishop, after confirming the young person, would give him or her a pat on the cheek. (Some might call it a slap, but that's hardly the case.) This gesture, while not part of the official ritual of the sacrament, was a sign to the young person of now being a "soldier for Christ." As a fully initiated member of the Church, there is an expectation that one would work diligently to spread the Faith and defend it at all costs.

Since the earliest days of the Church, her message has not always been received well by those with earthly power or influence. There is a sort of perennial counter-cultural attitude about the Church that has consistently placed her at odds with a more worldly image. That struggle continues today. There's no shortage of cases where members of the Church – clergy and laity alike – aren't shamed by groups of people because of their views on any number of issues. I bring this up because this weekend we celebrate Pentecost, the culmination of the Easter season. The descent of the Holy Spirit on the Apostles is relived each time someone is confirmed. The Spirit enabled once cowardly men to go out and transform the world by the preaching of the Good News of the salvation won for us through Christ Jesus. Today, those who are confirmed become new "soldiers for Christ" who go are likewise sent out to preach in word and action. Very likely, there will be situations where their views are mocked and ridiculed. One of the gifts of the Holy Spirit is fortitude – the ability to do what is right even amid challenges. That gift is needed now more than ever.

This weekend, three adults will be confirmed by Bishop Murphy. Later in the week, Bishop Andrzej will preside at Confirmation for our young people and next Saturday, I will confirm another gentleman from our parish. It's truly a Holy Spirit week! Please pray for all those who will receive the fullness of the Spirit to enable them to be men and women of steadfast faith amid a rapidly changing world. Only in Christ will we ever find perfect fulfillment. The Gospel of Christ is need now more than ever. Those who become "soldiers" of the Master are on the front lines fighting for all that is good, true, and beautiful. Pray that all of us may be renewed in the Holy Spirit and open our hear to his manifold gifts!

*Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.
Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created.
And You shall renew the face of the earth.*

O, God, who by the light of the Holy Spirit, did instruct the hearts of the faithful, grant that by the same Holy Spirit we may be truly wise and ever enjoy His consolations, Through Christ Our Lord, Amen.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

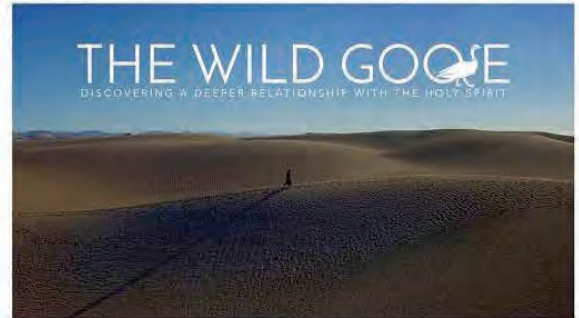

June 5, 2022

Please keep the young people in our Religious Education program in your prayers this week as they prepare for the Sacrament of Confirmation. God bless them always!

The image shows a confirmation prayer card. On the left side, the word "Confirmation" is written in a large, red, cursive font at the top. Below it is a circular stained-glass style illustration of a white dove with its wings spread, perched on a banner that reads "ENLIGHTEN ME". The background of the circle is yellow and blue. At the bottom of the left side, the text "Come Holy Spirit, enlighten me with your love." is written in a red, cursive font.

On the right side, the text "A Confirmation Prayer" is written in a red, cursive font at the top. Below it is a decorative flourish. The main body of text is in a red, serif font and reads: "As you receive the gifts of the Holy Spirit may your faith in Christ be strengthened, your love shine from within and may you grow in God's graces. Keep an open mind and willing heart and grow in the knowledge of His Holy Word. The blessings you receive on this Confirmation Day are special gifts that stay with you throughout your life. May the Holy Spirit strengthen you and continue to be with you throughout this journey called life. Amen."

Breaking Open the Word

Reflecting on next Sunday's Gospel before you come to Mass can bring so much more meaning to your experience of the Liturgy. Here's the Gospel for next Sunday. How does this Gospel touch your life?

June 12, 2022

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

Jn 16:12-15

Jesus said to his disciples:

"I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now.

But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth.

He will not speak on his own, but he will speak what he hears, and will declare to you the things that are coming.

He will glorify me, because he will take from what is mine and declare it to you.

Everything that the Father has is mine; for this reason I told you that he will take from what is mine and declare it to you."

Reflection Questions

- Who is "the Spirit of truth"?
- What does Jesus promise to his disciples?
- As we draw closer to God and the mystery of the Trinity, we learn about God's love. God has lavished us with love in the persons of the Son and the Spirit, who in turn nurture in us the desire to do the same. When we open ourselves to be filled with an awareness of the divine life within us, we participate in the endless spiral of love that leads to eternal life. Whenever we share selfless love in the family, we are sharing in the life of the Trinity. How can you share in the life of the Trinity this coming week?

Praying with the Holy Spirit

The language of prayer is mystery, the mystery of the encounter between the human soul and its Creator, the invisible God. Indeed, we scarcely need St. Paul to remind us that “we do not know how to pray as we ought” (Romans 8:26). So many of the circumstances of our lives can defy our poor power to respond in prayer. How do we sing of God’s goodness? How do we lament our deepest sorrows? How do we extoll God’s glory? What is the language that can express our love of God and our reception of God’s love for us?

The Holy Spirit can speak for us through the Scriptures. The Word of God is alive, because it was written under the inspiration of the Spirit. When we take those words upon our own lips, the Spirit speaks anew through us. Many traditional hymns and contemporary worship songs take their lyrics directly from the Scriptures too. Whether we speak or sing biblical texts, we can offer back to the Father, by the Spirit, God’s own perfect words.

Sometimes our prayer is beyond being captured by any words. This is when the prayer of our hearts can be made by the Spirit in language beyond our understanding, “with sighs too deep for words” (Romans 8:26). Try the following exercise that can help us to trust the Holy Spirit to pray in and through us.

Prayer Exercise

Come into a space of quiet. Become present to our ever-present God. Invite God to be with you. Become aware of your breath. The very act of breathing is an expression of the presence of God, who sustains our lives in this moment and every moment. Remember, in Hebrew, Spirit and breath are the same word, ruah. At our Baptism and Confirmation, God sends his Spirit to reside in us. As you sit in the quiet, notice how you experience the Spirit residing in you. Where in your body do you come to know the active presence of God? In your heart? Your mind? Your gut? Be aware of this truth: God lives in you by the Spirit, here, now. Continue for as long as you feel called to be in the stillness, aware that God is with you. What might the Spirit be praying in and through you? Set words completely aside. Listen.
