Twenty-fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

A Message from the Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

With the close of summer upon us, we return to the normal routine of everyday life. For our parish, it's a time when many activities are being planned for the coming months. Please be sure to check our bulletin each week to see all that will be happening. Among these many activities are:

- An Adult Enrichment course on the Church Fathers led by Deacon Frank
- The feast of St. Gerard on October 16th
- The annual Blessing of Animals
- The Knights of Columbus' Steak Night
- The Columbiettes' Raffle Night
- Fellowship after the 10am Mass each month
- The Knights of Columbus' Soccer Challenge
- Advent Lessons & Carols

I'd also like to share with you an exciting project that we will be launching in the next couple of weeks! Many people stop by the statue of Our Blessed Mother in the prayer garden near our campus exit. We are going to improve that area with a beautiful brick patio. You will have the opportunity to memorialize a brick either for your family or in memory of a loved one who has passed. We're hoping to have the preparatory work completed in the next month so that we can install an initial set of memorial bricks. The donation will be $150 for all orders placed before December 31st. There will be more information in the following weeks.

And, of course, we remember the horrific events that unfolded in our nation on this day in 2001. We pray for the repose of the souls of those who perished and for the consolation of their families and friends. May we honor their memory by being peacemakers in our own time and place.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

blessed are the
PEACEMAKERS
for they shall be called the children of God.

WATCH

THE RELUCTANT SAINT: THE STORY OF ST. JOSEPH OF CUPERTINO

Maximilian Schell stars as "the flying friar," St. Joseph of Cupertino, in this story of the humble Franciscan friar. In Cupertino, Italy, Joseph's peasant mother convinces the reluctant Abbott to accept her son into the monastery. With the support of the kindly local Bishop who sees in him a great deal more than others do, and by a series of miraculous incidents, the simple but pious Joseph is ordained a priest.

with Dr. Michael Barber and Dr. James Prothro

FORMEDNOW

Join Dr. Michael Barber and Dr. James Prothro as they dive into St. Paul's Letter to the Galatians.

This new multipart series walks through this pivotal book and how it fits in with the rest of the New Testament, as well as how Paul's writings can help us grow in relationship with Jesus.

LISTEN

DRAWING STRENGTH FROM OUR LADY OF SORROWS BY KIMBERLY HAHN

Speaker and author Kimberly Hahn, wife of Dr. Scott Hahn and mother of six, is a convert to the Catholic Faith. Although honoring Mary was difficult for her to understand initially, she began to encounter Mary's loving guidance in little ways on a daily basis. In this presentation, Kimberly reflects on the joys and sorrows that Mary prayerfully experienced during her time on earth, and shares how her example leads us closer to Christ.

Prayer for the Anniversary of 9/11

Powerful God, our refuge and our strength, we turn to you for peace and security as we recall the 9/11 attack. We thank you for the bravery and the sacrifice of those who saved lives as firefighters, rescue crews, or people aboard United 93. Comfort and strengthen the family and friends of those who died. Give healing and patience to the survivors of the attacks who are living with continued physical or psychological pain. May those who survived feel gratitude, not guilt. Assure each person whose life changed forever of your protection and strength. Dispel the nightmares; silence the anxiety. May we learn to depend on the security you offer. We pray for your peace as we remember the terrorism attacks of 9/11. May our suffering from these attacks awaken in us an awareness of the pain and fear that so many around the world live with each day. May we know how to pray for those who struggle against oppression and injustice. As we hear of terrorist activity around the world, quiet our fears. Heal the wounded of these attacks, and help their families and friends rest in your security. Guide the choices of our world leaders. Give them wisdom and discernment not only as they work to resolve the lasting effects of the 9/11 attacks but also as they try to alleviate terror of all sorts—from genocide to hunger, from drought to bombings. May their actions bring your peace to all the people of the world. Gracious God, our world changed with the 9/11 attacks. We have seen how easily buildings can fall and how quickly lives can end. As we remember 9/11, may it remind us that you are our only true security. Give us your strength to face the memory of this attack and the changes it made in our lives. Give us your compassion to help each other and recognize need around the world. Give us your hope as we face an uncertain future. Give us your peace. In the strong name of Jesus Christ through the power of the Holy Spirit,

Amen.

Breaking Open the Word

Reflecting on next Sunday's Gospel before you come to Mass can bring so much more meaning to your experience of the Liturgy. Here's the Gospel for next Sunday. How does this Gospel touch your life?

September 18, 2022

Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time Lk 16:1-13

Jesus said to his disciples, "A rich man had a steward who was reported to him for squandering his property. He summoned him and said, 'What is this I hear about you? Prepare a full account of your stewardship, because you can no longer be my steward.' The steward said to himself, 'What shall I do, now that my master is taking the position of steward away from me? I am not strong enough to dig and I am ashamed to beg. I know what I shall do so that, when I am removed from the stewardship, they may welcome me into their homes.' He called in his master's debtors one by one. To the first he said, 'How much do you owe my master?' He replied, 'One hundred measures of olive oil.' He said to him, 'Here is your promissory note. Sit down and quickly write one for fifty.' Then to another the steward said, 'And you, how much do you owe?' He replied, 'One hundred kors of wheat.' The steward said to him, 'Here is your promissory note; write one for eighty.' And the master commended that dishonest steward for acting prudently. "For the children of this world are more prudent in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light. I tell you, make friends for yourselves with dishonest wealth, so that when it fails, you will be welcomed into eternal dwellings. The person who is trustworthy in very small matters is also trustworthy in great ones; and the person who is dishonest in very small matters is also dishonest in great ones. If, therefore, you are not trustworthy with dishonest wealth, who will trust you with true wealth? If you are not trustworthy with what belongs to another, who will give you what is yours? No servant can serve two masters.

He will either hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and mammon."

Reflection Questions

- In this story, Jesus is speaking about the principle of being a good steward (manager). Why do you think we should learn from Jesus using a negative example of stewardship instead of a positive one?
- How do you feel about the idea that all that you have—even the raw materials, such as health, opportunity, etc.—are gifts from God?
- How does this shift in perspective affect the way you think about stewarding your resources for God's interests?

Blessing of the Animals

Bring your pets, big or small, on Saturday, Oct. 1st at 12pm on the Great Lawn outside church. (Inside Parish Hall if it rains) Our beloved mascot Leo will be there to greet his fellow 4-legged parishioners!

“So God created the great sea monsters and every living creature that moves, with which the waters swarm, according to their kinds, and every winged bird according to its kind. And God saw that it was good.” (Gen 1:21)

Many may be familiar with the RCIA program, which was recently renamed OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation for Adults). OCIA enables those who were never baptized or have no formal faith background, those who were baptized in another Christian church who would like to become Catholic, and Catholics who never received all the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Communion and Confirmation) to receive sacraments and be fully initiated into the Catholic faith. It is the work of the Holy Spirit that brings people to OCIA, but often the Holy Spirit works through the encouragement of a friend or family member. If you know someone who is interested in the Catholic faith or in completing their Sacraments please have them reach out to Deacon Frank (deaconfrank@stgmajella.org).

Remembering and Caring for our Senior Priests

Do you ever think about a favorite Pastor or Parish Priest and wonder how they are and where they may be living?

Well, for our Senior Priests who are living at St. Pius X Residence, life is good and sometimes very busy.

“We are very happy that more and more of our Priests are taking advantage of this wonderful facility. We thank you for your support, we depend on it, especially now with the increasing costs we are experiencing. We couldn’t do it without you!”

- Rev. Msgr. Thomas Costa,
Vicar for Senior Priests

“Since I arrived at St. Pius X, I have found living here like being at home. I have found much happiness with my fellow priests and in the entire community, and I especially appreciate the support I receive. Thank you for helping to make this home possible.”

- Rev. Msgr. T Peter Ryan

Even in retirement our senior priests retain roles as our shepherds, and St. Pius X enables these dedicated men who live there to be fully engaged members of the community. “Still on duty,” they serve as our teachers, counselors, and spiritual leaders.

The special collection for retired priests living at St. Pius X Residence will take place next weekend. Please be as generous as possible! Thank You!
