Blessed Duns Scotus

A Franciscan priest and theologian, Bl. Duns Scotus debated against the Dominicans in the thirteenth century, defending Mary's Immaculate Conception. Filmed in beautiful ancient monastery locations in Europe, Bl. Duns Scotus is revealed as a humble and courageous apostle of the Faith against the oppressive anti-Catholic government in power.

Veterans day

God bless all the men and women who have served our country, especially our parishioners.

Veterans Day Prayer

Lord God, we thank you for the gift of veterans and their humble service to you. Because they served our country, as your Son humbly served you, bless them and keep them close to your heart, especially those with disabilities, and those who endure any kind of suffering. We also ask that you help those who are transitioning back into civilian life, particularly those who struggle to find a job upon returning home. Provide the mental and spiritual strength they need to best serve you in the way they live their lives. Please bestow grace on their families and watch over them and their fallen friends. Give them peace, protection and continue to be with them and their loved ones. In Your holy name we pray. Amen.

Written by the 2020 Leadership Team.

Breaking Open the Word

Reflecting on next Sunday's Gospel before you come to Mass can bring so much more meaning to your experience of the Liturgy. Here's the Gospel for next Sunday. How does this Gospel touch your life?

November 13, 2022

Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Lk 21:5-19

While some people were speaking about how the temple was adorned with costly stones and votive offerings, Jesus said, "All that you see here--the days will come when there will not be left a stone upon another stone that will not be thrown down." Then they asked him, "Teacher, when will this happen? And what sign will there be when all these things are about to happen?" He answered, "See that you not be deceived, for many will come in my name, saying, 'I am he,' and 'The time has come.' Do not follow them! When you hear of wars and insurrections, do not be terrified; for such things must happen first, but it will not immediately be the end." Then he said to them, "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be powerful earthquakes, famines, and plagues from place to place; and awesome sights and mighty signs will come from the sky. "Before all this happens, however, they will seize and persecute you, they will hand you over to the synagogues and to prisons, and they will have you led before kings and governors because of my name. It will lead to your giving testimony. Remember, you are not to prepare your defense beforehand, for I myself shall give you a wisdom in speaking that all your adversaries will be powerless to resist or refute. You will even be handed over by parents, brothers, relatives, and friends, and they will put some of you to death. You will be hated by all because of my name, but not a hair on your head will be destroyed. By your perseverance you will secure your lives."

Reflection Questions

- When Luke wrote this Gospel, many terrible things had happened, and people were wondering if perhaps these terrible things meant that the end of time was near. Here Luke reminds us that Jesus told his followers that many bad things would happen, but that they were to trust that God would be with them, even through these difficulties. Do you think it is easy to trust God when difficult things like the ones we discussed happen?
- Think about ways in which God might bring good out of the difficult events in your life.
- One of the challenges of being a disciple of Jesus is learning to trust his assurance that he will be with us, even in the most difficult of times. In the coming week, how can you be a better disciple by trusting in God more?
