Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ,
King of the Universe

A Message from the Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

At this special time marked by gratitude, I must thank you for the many ways in which you share so generously with our parish and with the wider community. Because of you, our food pantry can help the many families who need food for their family's table. And the drives that we have throughout the year – Back-to-School, Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter – also make a difference in the lives of so many. Our parish ministries flourish because of the countless hours so many volunteers offer in a variety of ways to make not only our parish more vibrant, but also to assist all who come to our doors in any type of need.

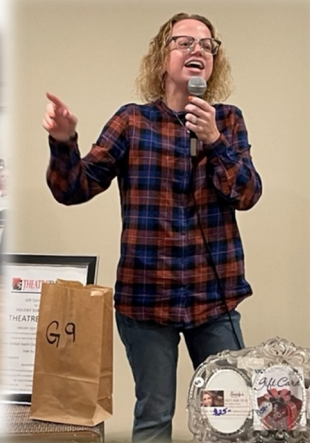

Another way in which you have demonstrated your generosity is in the financial assistance that keeps our parish up and running. From professional staff to building maintenance – from expanding ministry resources to special events – your continued regular donations make everything we do here possible. And like with other forms of giving, your assistance helps more than just our parish. Your participation in the diocesan Catholic Ministries Appeal aids the whole of our diocese in its mission to spread the Gospel, to educate children, to help those in need, and so much more. For several years of my priesthood, I served in four ministries simultaneously – Vice Rector of our Seminary, Director of Diaconate Formation, Chaplain at Hofstra University and Associate Director for Interreligious Dialogue. I saw so clearly how that variety of diocesan ministry was made possible entirely by the CMA. If you haven't done so already, please prayerfully consider giving towards our parish goal. In doing so, you will be participating in the charitable work that touches thousands of lives on Long Island.

No matter where you will be this week for Thanksgiving, or with whom you will be sharing a festive meal, please know that you are in our prayers – priests and deacons – each day. Your intentions remain in our hearts, especially at the altar. Have a blessed and joyful Thanksgiving!

Yours in Christ,

Understanding today's feast of Christ the King may be particularly challenging. While most of us do not have direct experience with kings or royalty, we have a sense of who they are. We know that royalty have sovereignty over their kingdoms. We know that those who are subjects to royalty offer them allegiance and honor. To understand how Christ is our king, we extend and magnify what we know to be true of the best of human royalty. Christ's kingship extends to all places, all people, and all times. Christ manifests his kingship through his death on the cross in which he offered salvation to everyone. Those who can see with eyes of faith recognize Jesus to be our heavenly king. As you gather as a family, recall that this Sunday is the last Sunday in the Church year and on this Sunday we celebrate the feast of Christ the King. Talk together about what it means to be a king or queen. How do those who are subjects behave toward royalty? Read today's Gospel, John 18:33b-37. Ask your family to discuss these questions: Does Pilate treat Jesus like royalty? What does Jesus say about his kingdom? Talk about how your family shows honor and obedience to Christ our King. Pray together the Lord's Prayer and ask God to help your family act in ways that show you recognize and honor Christ as King. (Loyola Press)

Parish Outreach Ministry

“Be diligent in serving the poor. Love the poor, honor them as you would Christ himself.”

Joy of Giving Outreach Drive

Our Joy of Giving tree is up in the lobby of the church . Help children have a magical Christmas by taking a tag off of the tree, purchasing the gift, and dropping it back unwrapped by Dec. 4th. God bless you for your giving hearts!

Thank you!

The Knights of Columbus Thanksgiving Food Drive to support our pantry was a huge success!! There was approximately 1100 lbs. of food donated, $150.00 in gift cards and $26.00 in cash. We were overwhelmed with the generosity of everyone that donated! God bless our Knights for organizing this successful drive. We would not be able to feed so many families if it wasn't for their kindness. We wish them and their families a very happy Thanksgiving!

God Sighting

The community from Temple Isaiah in Stony Brook heard about our outreach efforts in providing families with food for Thanksgiving and decided to donate 40 bags of food to us. They were so excited to deliver these bags! It filled our hearts seeing their joy and the connection made between our religious communities!

Online Weekly Giving

“Give and gifts will be given to you; a good measure, packed together, shaken down, and overflowing, will be poured into your lap. For the measure with which you measure will in return be measured out to you.” Luke 6:38

This is a promise from God that He doesn't need a large amount, but will honor our generosity and obedience. Then, He can do a miracle to multiply and pour out blessings that overflow to our lives and others.

We pray for all recently deceased, remembering especially Fr. Donald Babinski and James Bridges, may they find eternal rest and joy.

Please stop by our Prayer Corner near Reception to borrow books and CDs on many Catholic topics to deepen your faith formation and spiritual life.

Columbiettes

We are an organization of women from all backgrounds united by our Catholic Faith, the love of family, our country, and our commitment to helping others. We support charities and are involved in community activities as well as working with our brother Knights. If you would like to join, please contact Jennifer at 631-473-2900.

Knights of Columbus

A wonderful Catholic organization that helps support charitable causes throughout the year in our church as well as the community. To learn more please call Kevin Coco at 631-839-6333.

Low-Gluten Hosts

Yes, we have low-gluten hosts. If you are in need of these please see the sacristan or Priest before Mass.

Our Parish Mission Statement: Formed by God's word and nourished at the Eucharist, we strive to be faithful witnesses to Jesus Christ by handing on the Catholic faith to our families and community and serving those in need.

Breaking Open the Word

Reflecting on next Sunday's Gospel before you come to Mass can bring so much more meaning to your experience of the Liturgy. Here's the Gospel for next Sunday. How does this Gospel touch your life?

November 27, 2022

First Sunday of Advent

Mt 24:37-44

Jesus said to his disciples: "As it was in the days of Noah, so it will be at the coming of the Son of Man. In those days before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, up to the day that Noah entered the ark. They did not know until the flood came and carried them all away. So will it be also at the coming of the Son of Man. Two men will be out in the field; one will be taken, and one will be left. Two women will be grinding at the mill; one will be taken, and one will be left. Therefore, stay awake! For you do not know on which day your Lord will come. Be sure of this: if the master of the house had known the hour of night when the thief was coming, he would have stayed awake and not let his house be broken into. So too, you also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come."

Reflection Questions

- Does Jesus tell us when the day of the Lord will be? Can we know when it will be? What does Jesus say we should do?
- How can you and your family commit to one thing that you will do this Advent season to help one another be better Christians?
- We need to pay attention and prepare ourselves for the day of the Lord. We do this through our prayer and our faithfulness to the commandments and to Jesus' teaching. God requires us to pay close attention in order to hear the ways he is calling us. Although we don't have to decipher God's call, we do need to learn to recognize and understand it.

Thanksgiving Prayer

This Thanksgiving, let us remember all the good things and people, who have come into our lives. We focus on thanking each one who has helped us, and ultimately thank God for the good gifts of this world.

God our Father, graciously accept from your humble people a thankful heart and spirit. Everything we have and are able to share with others ultimately comes from your love of your creations. Often we think that everything we have is our creation; we ask you this day to create in us a spirit of gratitude, that we may always know that all good gifts come from you. We ask this through Christ our brother, in the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Please join us for Mass on Thanksgiving day at 9am!
