Religious Education

January Level Family Masses

Sunday, January 22nd 10am Level 2, 12pm Level 7

Important January Dates

Wednesday, January 18th– 7pm Level 8 Conversations with Staff

Saturday, January 21st– 11am Level 1 Families “Baptism” Retreat

Saturday, January 28th-11am & 2pm First Penance

This Sunday we break from our reading of Matthew’s Gospel (the primary Gospel for our current liturgical cycle, Cycle A) to read from John’s Gospel. We heard Matthew’s account of Jesus’ baptism last Sunday, on the feast of the Baptism of the Lord. Today, we hear John the Baptist’s testimony about Jesus as found in John’s Gospel. John’s Gospel differs from the other Gospels because John does not describe Jesus’ baptism by John the Baptist. Instead, John the Baptist announces that he knows that Jesus is the Son of God.

In today’s reading, John the Baptist sees Jesus approaching and cries out, giving witness about who Jesus is. In John’s testimony he says that he saw the Spirit descend upon Jesus. By this sign, John the Baptist knew that Jesus was the one who is to come after him.

John the Baptist uses two titles for Jesus that are familiar to us. John calls Jesus the “Lamb of God” and the “Son of God.” By using these titles, John the Baptist identifies Jesus’ ultimate purpose: to redeem sinful humanity.

John the Baptist’s testimony about Jesus clearly distinguishes John’s baptism from the Baptism that Jesus will inaugurate. John baptizes with water; Jesus will baptize with the Holy Spirit. John also puts his practice of baptism in the context of Jesus’ ministry. The purpose of John’s baptism was to make Jesus known to Israel.

John the Baptist’s sense of purpose is clearly identified in this reading: he baptized in order to prepare for and make known the ministry of the One who was to follow. John’s witness is an excellent example of what it means to be a disciple. By our Baptism, we are called to make Jesus known to all the world by our words and by the witness of our lives. # Parish Outreach Ministry

“Be diligent in serving the poor. Love the poor, honor them as you would Christ himself.”

RISE LIFE SERVICES ENRICHMENT EXPERIENCE SUICIDE PREVENTION PROGRAM

MISSION

The Mission of Rise Life Services' Enrichment Experience is to actively engage in community outreach to identify vulnerable and at-risk youth and young adults, connect with them, and save lives by providing the highest quality of culturally-informed and person-centered mental health services, recreational activities, family support services, educational and vocational support, and wellness strategies to enhance their lives, instill hope for the future, and assist them in experiencing their unique lives as worth living.

OUR TEAM

The team includes social workers, family specialists, peer specialists, outreach specialists and recreational therapists. The goal is to provide a holistic approach to suicide awareness, risk, and prevention.

WHO WE ARE

The Enrichment Experience program will consist of an experienced, diverse team with advanced degrees whose specializations include but are not limited to crisis response, risk management, suicide prevention, family counseling, recreation therapy, outreach, wellness, vocational and educational specialties, and youth advocacy.

SERVICING

Youth and young adults up to age 24 who are at risk for suicide and who are either Hispanic/Latino, Black/African American, Asian American/Pacific Islander, American Indian/Alaskan Native or LGBTQI+ and living in Suffolk County, NY.

BELIEVE IN YOURSELF

“TO EVERYONE OUT THERE WHO'S HURTING- IT'S NOT A SIGN OF WEAKNESS TO ASK FOR HELP. IT'S A SIGN OF STRENGTH.” - BARACK OBAMA

CONTACT US

Allyson Swiatek | (631) 508-1148
Team Leader | ASwiatek@riseliveservices.org

Preventing and reducing the risk of suicide among these particular youth require an extensive, community-based approach that promotes help-seeking behaviors, builds networks to trusted individuals and alliances among supportive peers. Engagement in community activities can also be instrumental in providing opportunities that can ensure physical and emotional safety, their needs, and ensures proper prevention.

Online Weekly Giving

“Give and gifts will be given to you; a good measure, packed together, shaken down, and overflowing, will be poured into your lap. For the measure with which you measure will in return be measured out to you.” Luke 6:38

This is a promise from God that He doesn't need a large amount, but will honor our generosity and obedience. Then, He can do a miracle to multiply and pour out blessings that overflow to our lives and others.

We pray for all recently deceased, remembering especially Anne McCarthy, Gerard Endres, Jr., Frank Manfredo, and Nancy Burdick, may they find eternal rest and joy.

Please stop by our Prayer Corner near Reception to borrow books and CDs on many Catholic topics to deepen your faith formation and spiritual life.

Columbiettes

We are an organization of women from all backgrounds united by our Catholic Faith, the love of family, our country, and our commitment to helping others. We support charities and are involved in community activities as well as working with our brother Knights. If you would like to join, please contact Jennifer at 631-473-2900.

Knights of Columbus

A wonderful Catholic organization that helps support charitable causes throughout the year in our church as well as the community. To learn more please call Kevin Coco at 631-839-6333.

Low-Gluten Hosts

Yes, we have low-gluten hosts. If you are in need of these please see the sacristan or Priest before Mass.

Our Parish Mission Statement: Formed by God's word and nourished at the Eucharist, we strive to be faithful witnesses to Jesus Christ by handing on the Catholic faith to our families and community and serving those in need.

Breaking Open the Word

Reflecting on next Sunday's Gospel before you come to Mass can bring so much more meaning to your experience of the Liturgy. Here's the Gospel for next Sunday. How does this Gospel touch your life?

January 22, 2023

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Mt 4: 12-23

When Jesus heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew to Galilee. He left Nazareth and went to live in Capernaum by the sea, in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali, that what had been said through Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled:

Land of Zebulun and land of Naphtali, the way to the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles, the people who sit in darkness have seen a great light, on those dwelling in a land overshadowed by death light has arisen.

From that time on, Jesus began to preach and say, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." As he was walking by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon who is called Peter, and his brother Andrew, casting a net into the sea; they were fishermen. He said to them, "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men." At once they left their nets and followed him. He walked along from there and saw two other brothers, James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They were in a boat, with their father Zebedee, mending their nets. He called them, and immediately they left their boat and their father and followed him.

Con't.

He went around all of Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom, and curing every disease and illness among the people.

Reflection Questions

- In verses 15-16, Matthew presents an interpretation of Jesus' identity, meaning and impact. He uses the language of "light," and makes reference to death and resurrection. Who is Jesus for us? How is Jesus "light"? What do we see in that light?
- What did people need to repent? What kind of "change of mind" was needed? Why did the kingdom of heaven require that change of mind, do you think?
- What does Jesus' call mean for you today? Do you need to repent, or change your mind?

In union with Catholics across the country, the Diocese of Rockville Centre will participate in the National Prayer Vigil for Life.
