Congratulations!

Some of our wonderful Religious Education students received the Sacrament of First Reconciliation this past Saturday. We are so proud of their eagerness in learning and experiencing this beautiful sacrament. God bless them as they now prepare for the Sacrament of First Holy Communion.

St. Gerard Majella Handkerchiefs

Only one instance is recorded of St. Gerard curing an expectant mother of her illness while he was alive, but there were many women who claimed that they and their children were granted graces through the prayers of Gerard. The famous "handkerchief story" goes like this: While he was leaving the house of a family he had gone to visit, he dropped his handkerchief. A young woman retrieved it, but as she handed it to him, Gerard told her mysteriously, "Keep it. One day it will be of service to you." Although puzzled, the woman did keep it. And a few years later, she faced life-threatening complications as she was about to give birth to her first child. She remembered the mysterious hanky and the promise, and asked that it be brought to her in her travail. She held it to her womb and immediately the pain ceased and she delivered a normal, healthy child.

Are you or someone you know expecting, trying to conceive, or ill? St. Gerard Handkerchiefs and prayer cards are available for pickup at the front office.

Parish Outreach Ministry

“Be diligent in serving the poor. Love the poor, honor them as you would Christ himself.”

Falls are the leading cause of injury for seniors

Free Falls Prevention Program

Learn how to prevent falls by attending this free Stepping On® workshop for community active seniors.

Class details:

- Classes held two hours a week for seven weeks
- Led by a St. Charles Rehabilitation professional
- Interactive and highly participative
- Guest speakers specializing in exercise, vision, home safety and medications

Topics covered:

- Balance and strength exercises
- The role vision plays in balance
- How medications contribute to falls
- Staying safe when out in the community
- Safe and protective footwear
- How to check your home for safety

*Stepping On is a model program which has been shown that people who have completed the workshop have experienced a reduced rate of falls of 31%.

Online Weekly Giving

“Give and gifts will be given to you; a good measure, packed together, shaken down, and overflowing, will be poured into your lap. For the measure with which you measure will in return be measured out to you.” Luke 6:38

This is a promise from God that He doesn't need a large amount, but will honor our generosity and obedience. Then, He can do a miracle to multiply and pour out blessings that overflow to our lives and others.

We pray for all recently deceased, may they find eternal rest and joy.

Please stop by our Prayer Corner near Reception to borrow books and CDs on many Catholic topics to deepen your faith formation and spiritual life.

Columbiettes

We are an organization of women from all backgrounds united by our Catholic Faith, the love of family, our country, and our commitment to helping others. We support charities and are involved in community activities as well as working with our brother Knights. If you would like to join, please contact Jennifer at 631-473-2900.

Knights of Columbus

A wonderful Catholic organization that helps support charitable causes throughout the year in our church as well as the community. To learn more please call Kevin Coco at 631-839-6333.

Low-Gluten Hosts

Yes, we have low-gluten hosts. If you are in need of these please see the sacristan or Priest before Mass.

Our Parish Mission Statement: Formed by God's word and nourished at the Eucharist, we strive to be faithful witnesses to Jesus Christ by handing on the Catholic faith to our families and community and serving those in need.

Breaking Open the Word

Reflecting on next Sunday's Gospel before you come to Mass can bring so much more meaning to your experience of the Liturgy.
Here's the Gospel for next Sunday. How does this Gospel touch your life?

February 12, 2023

Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Mt 5:20-22a, 27-28, 33-34a, 37

Jesus said to his disciples:

"I tell you, unless your righteousness surpasses that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven.

"You have heard that it was said to your ancestors, You shall not kill; and whoever kills will be liable to judgment.

But I say to you, whoever is angry with his brother will be liable to judgment.

"You have heard that it was said, You shall not commit adultery.

But I say to you, everyone who looks at a woman with lust has already committed adultery with her in his heart.

"Again you have heard that it was said to your ancestors,

Do not take a false oath, but make good to the Lord all that you vow.

But I say to you, do not swear at all. Let your 'Yes' mean 'Yes,' and your 'No' mean 'No.' Anything more is from the evil one."

Reflection Questions

- When you think of authority. What comes to mind? Do you have a negative reaction or a positive reaction?
- What did Jesus say about abolishing the Law?
- How long does Jesus say the Law will remain with us?
- When was the last time you rested in the authority of Christ, and found hope and joy in the authority of His truth and grace?

Reflection by
Brother Stephen Balletta, SM

The Society of Mary is a religious congregation of brothers and priests who seek to grow in holiness as sons of Mary and to serve the Church as brothers in Christ. The Province of Meribah runs three retreat centers, two high schools on Long Island— Chaminade High School and Kellenberg Memorial High School — and St. Martin de Porres Marianist School (pre-K—8th grade). Following in the footsteps of their Founder, Blessed William Joseph Chaminade, they aim to nurture in students an informed and vibrant faith.
