And it happened that,
while he was with them
at table, he took bread,
said the blessing,
broke it, and gave it to them. With that their eyes were opened and they recognized him.

The two recounted what
had taken place on the way
and how he was made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

CATHOLIC MINISTRIES APPEAL

DIOCESE OF ROCKVILLE CENTRE

One Family - Journeying together in Communion, Participation and Mission

And we, too, will always have this surprise: when we draw near to God through works of charity, in Communion, in the Word of God, we find that He is there, first, waiting for us, this is how He loves us. And just like the flower of the almond tree, He is the first.”

-Pope Francis

Your donation to the Catholic Ministries Appeal supports Catholic Charities Parish Social Ministry. The Parish Social Ministry department of Catholic Charities provides training, spiritual and emotional support, resources and sometimes just a voice of comfort at the other end of the phone to those who work at the parish PSM. At the parish level, the coordinators, staff and volunteers are tasked with assessing the needs in the local community, figuring out ways to address those needs and then engaging the parish community to work together to meet those needs.

The Catholic Charities Information and Referral (CIR) line is another way that Parish Social Ministry journeys with the vulnerable people in need on Long Island. In 2021, there were more than 1,500 callers and 1,800 referral services.

“My faith allows me to serve others with love, gentleness, compassion, and tenderness. I always ask the Holy Spirit to help me listen with my heart so I can extend mercy to others without asking me to receive,” shared Elizabeth Ramirez, Catholic Charities Parish Social Ministry Developer.

THIS WEEK ON FORMED

Week of April 23, 2023

Episode 1: Saint Mark the Evangelist

Just who is St. Mark, the author of this short but action-packed Gospel? Using outside sources, other books of the Bible, and the Gospel itself, Dr. Gray takes a closeup look at St. Mark, and his connection with St. Peter and the Christians of Rome.

Who is St. Catherine of Siena?

In light of St. Catherine of Siena's feast day, join Dr. Tim Gray and Dr. Elizabeth Klein, as they celebrate this holy woman: a nurse and mystic with papal influence who became a doctor of the Church.

Can You Trust God? by Dr. Tim Gray

To be a saint, we must trust God wholeheartedly. Since the fall of our first parents, however, humanity has been tempted to mistrust the Father's love for us. Scripture scholar Dr. Tim Gray takes us on a journey that addresses the pervasive misconceptions about God, showing us that there is no reason not to follow him.

Saint Louis Mary Grignion de Montfort's Story

Feast Day-April 28th

Louis's life is inseparable from his efforts to promote genuine devotion to Mary, the mother of Jesus and mother of the Church. Totus tuus ("completely yours") was Louis's personal motto; Pope John Paul II chose it as his episcopal motto.

Born in the Breton village of Montfort, close to Rennes, France, as an adult Louis identified himself by the place of his baptism instead of his family name, Grignion. After being educated by the Jesuits and the Sulpicians, he was ordained a diocesan priest in 1700.

Soon he began preaching parish missions throughout western France. His years of ministering to the poor prompted him to travel and live very simply, sometimes getting him into trouble with Church authorities. In his preaching, which attracted thousands of people back to the faith, Father Louis recommended frequent, even daily, Holy Communion—not the custom then!—and imitation of the Virgin Mary's ongoing acceptance of God's will for her life.

Louis founded the Missionaries of the Company of Mary, for priests and brothers, and the Daughters of Wisdom, who cared especially for the sick. His book True Devotion to the Blessed Virgin has become a classic explanation of Marian devotion.

Louis died in Saint-Laurent-sur-Sèvre, where a basilica has been erected in his honor. He was canonized in 1947, and his liturgical feast is celebrated on April 28.

Reflection

Like Mary, Louis experienced challenges in his efforts to follow Jesus. Opposed at times in his preaching and in his other ministries, Louis knew with Saint Paul, "Neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, but only God, who causes the growth" (1 Corinthians 3:7). Any attempt to succeed by worldly standards runs the risk of betraying the Good News of Jesus. Mary is "the first and most perfect disciple," as the late Sulpician Father Raymond Brown described her.

Online Weekly Giving

"Give and gifts will be given to you; a good measure, packed together, shaken down, and overflowing, will be poured into your lap. For the measure with which you measure will in return be measured out to you." Luke 6:38

This is a promise from God that He doesn't need a large amount, but will honor our generosity and obedience. Then, He can do a miracle to multiply and pour out blessings that overflow to our lives and others.

We pray for all recently deceased, remembering especially Mary T. Dwayn, may they find eternal rest and joy.

Please stop by our Prayer Corner near Reception to borrow books and CDs on many Catholic topics to deepen your faith formation and spiritual life.

Columbiettes

We are an organization of women from all backgrounds united by our Catholic Faith, the love of family, our country, and our commitment to helping others. We support charities and are involved in community activities as well as working with our brother Knights. If you would like to join, please contact Jennifer at 631-473-2900.

Knights of Columbus

A wonderful Catholic organization that helps support charitable causes throughout the year in our church as well as the community. To learn more please call Kevin Coco at 631-839-6333.

Low-Gluten Hosts

Yes, we have low-gluten hosts. If you are in need of these please see the sacristan or Priest before Mass.

Our Parish Mission Statement: Formed by God's word and nourished at the Eucharist, we strive to be faithful witnesses to Jesus Christ by handing on the Catholic faith to our families and community and serving those in need.

Breaking Open the Word

Reflecting on next Sunday's Gospel before you come to Mass can bring so much more meaning to your experience of the Liturgy. Here's the Gospel for next Sunday. How does this Gospel touch your life?

April 30, 2023

Fourth Sunday of Easter

Jn 10:1-10

Jesus said:

"Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever does not enter a sheepfold through the gate but climbs over elsewhere is a thief and a robber. But whoever enters through the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens it for him, and the sheep hear his voice, as the shepherd calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has driven out all his own, he walks ahead of them, and the sheep follow him, because they recognize his voice. But they will not follow a stranger; they will run away from him, because they do not recognize the voice of strangers." Although Jesus used this figure of speech, the Pharisees did not realize what he was trying to tell them.

So Jesus said again, "Amen, amen, I say to you, I am the gate for the sheep. All who came before me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not listen to them. I am the gate. Whoever enters through me will be saved, and will come in and go out and find pasture. A thief comes only to steal and slaughter and destroy; I came so that they might have life and have it more abundantly."

Reflection Questions

- Jesus explains what it means that he is the gate for the sheep. What does it mean that Jesus is the gate?
- Jesus explains what it means that he is the "good shepherd." What does it mean that Jesus is the "good shepherd"?
- Jesus says, his sheep know His voice. Who or what has the biggest say/influence in your life, Jesus who is Lord and came to give abundant life? Or is His voice drowned out by the noise (news, culture, entertainment, politics, etc) of this world?
- What does Jesus mean that He will give abundant life? How can He give us abundant life?

Mother's Day Remembrance Cards

Mother's Day Mass Remembrance envelopes for special intentions for living or deceased are available on the table in the lobby. We also have Mother's Day Spiritual Bouquet cards available at the church office. Any additional questions please contact the church office at 631-473-2900.

Easter Flowers

The flowers that decorate our Church during the Easter season have been lovingly donated in memory of:

WANTED YOUR “EXTRA STUFF”

Over the last several months we have seen a greater-than-usual demand for items we sell in our barn. Because of this increase, we are currently in need of housewares, pots, pans, home décor items, bric-a-brac, small furniture items, towels, CDs, video games, vinyl records, etc. to restock our barn shelves.

As you begin your annual spring cleaning, we would ask you to please keep us in mind for your unwanted items.

Sales from merchandise donated to the thrift shop and barn directly affect the Parish’s ability to provide outreach services to the clients we serve. Thank you, in advance, for your continued support of the charitable endeavors of St. Gerard Majella Church and the role our thrift shop and barn play in making these services available.

Is God Calling You to Serve As A DEACON?

By virtue of our Baptism, we are all called to holiness—
the lay faithful as well as Bishops, priests, and deacons.

But have you felt called to serve in a much deeper and committed way?

If you are a man between the ages of 30 and 60, who feels that you are being called to ordained ministry as a deacon in the Church, you are invited to come for an Evening of Prayer and Discernment with other men of faith to discuss and explore that very question.

There is no cost to the evening—just your time and openness.

COME PREPARED

to LISTEN to PRAY to REFLECT to DISCERN where God is calling you!

Meetings are being offered conveniently at four locations in our diocese.
