True Presence of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament

We remember here that Jesus' followers heard Him say: ".....unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man....." They knew He meant it literally. Notice, also, that Jesus does not try to dissuade His followers from leaving Him. It stands to reason that, if He thought He was being misunderstood, He would have clarified His meaning, which He had done on other occasions when His listeners misunderstood Him. But He does no such thing here because He meant it literally. Maybe not in the way they understood it, but literally nonetheless!

So now, let us turn to the SECOND PROOF. What does this chapter, in the Bread of Life Discourse in John's Gospel that we discussed last week, tell us of Jesus' reaction to the departure of so many of His disciples? Jesus did something, which surely confounded His closest disciples, when He turned to them and asked: "Will you leave me also?" The inference here is that Jesus is telling those closest disciples that, if they are to remain as His disciples, they must believe in this teaching, even if they need to accept it on faith alone. Jesus is prepared to start all over again, if necessary, if these disciples refuse to accept this critical teaching!

The THIRD PROOF involves an aspect of biblical study. It is referred to as Typology, a fancy word for understanding the many Old Testament figures (or "types") that prefigure (or foretell) their fulfillment in their corresponding New Testament figures (or "anti-types").

I realize that this is a complicated explanation, but it will be better understood through the following story of Isaac, the son of Abraham, whom God commanded to have sacrificed by his father on Mt. Moriah. God tests Abraham but then does not actually permit Abraham to go through with the sacrifice. Well, Isaac is a "type" and Jesus is the "anti-type," as this intended sacrifice of Isaac prefigures, or foretells, of the actual sacrifice that God the Father offers of His only Son, Jesus.

There are many such types contained in the Old Testament. Moses, King David, and the Passover lambs are but a few that are fulfilled in the person of Jesus as their anti-type. One thing that is clear in the study of Typology: the type is always less significant than its corresponding anti-type found in the New Testament.

Now we must consider whether the Old Testament contains a type of the Blessed Sacrament. In fact, it does. Jesus even refers to it in Chapter 6 of John's Gospel. That type is the manna from heaven which, for forty years while they wandered through the desert, fed some three million Israelites. Miraculous without question!

Now, for the proof of the True Presence of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. If Jesus is not truly present in the Blessed Sacrament, that would make the type, namely the manna from heaven, of greater significance than its fulfillment or anti-type, the Blessed Sacrament. As stated above, the type is always less significant than its anti-type. Thus, we are left with two choices: Jesus made this the one exception (not likely) OR, in fact, the Blessed Sacrament is greater than the manna from heaven; as...

Jesus is truly present in the Blessed Sacrament!

“Every family needs a father -- a father who shares in his family's joy and pain, hands down wisdom to his children and offers them firm guidance and love,”

Pope Francis

Every day, people in our community are helped because of support from funds raised through the Catholic Ministries Appeal.

Today, consider a dad like Paul. Paul saw information about the Catholic Ministries Appeal at his local parish, and he knew he had to turn to the Church for help since he had nowhere else to go. Paul had been gainfully employed for more than 10 years when he began to fall ill. Soon his medical issues made it impossible for him to keep working and he was forced to go out on disability. After paying the co-pays on his medications, his family's rent and utilities bills, Paul had very little left to purchase food and other necessities for his family. It was hard for him to ask for help, but with nowhere else to turn, he did. Catholic Charities found him a specialist who assessed the family's needs and directed them to appropriate resources in their community. He went to his Parish Outreach, where his family received food that allowed them to make it through the month. Paul and his family received the help they so desperately needed. Today, Paul is back to work and the family is doing well. "I am so thankful that I know there is somewhere I can turn, where there are people that care, people I can talk to, if I am ever in such a situation again," shared Paul.

Breaking Open the Word

Reflecting on next Sunday's Gospel before you come to Mass can bring so much more meaning to your experience of the Liturgy. Here's the Gospel for next Sunday. How does this Gospel touch your life?

June 25, 2023

Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Mt 10:26-33

Jesus said to the Twelve:

"Fear no one.

Nothing is concealed that will not be revealed, nor secret that will not be known.

What I say to you in the darkness, speak in the light; what you hear whispered, proclaim on the housetops. And do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather, be afraid of the one who can destroy both soul and body in Gehenna.

Are not two sparrows sold for a small coin?

Yet not one of them falls to the ground without your Father's knowledge.

Even all the hairs of your head are counted.

So do not be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows. Everyone who acknowledges me before others I will acknowledge before my heavenly Father. But whoever denies me before others, I will deny before my heavenly Father."

Reflection Questions

- Jesus tells us that the Father knows the number of hairs on our heads. What does that tell us about God's relationship to us? What does that mean to you?
- Jesus tells us to not be afraid to proclaim the kingdom of heaven. What kinds of things today might make you afraid? Why?
- Is it easy to stand up for what one believes? (What challenges have you had to face when standing up for your beliefs? What reassurance do you hear in this Gospel for these challenges?)
- Someone who tells us that we have no reason to fear is saying that we can trust him or her. We express our trust in God whenever we pray the Creed. To proclaim that we believe in God the Father, in Jesus the Son, and in the Holy Spirit is to say that we trust the Holy Trinity and have no fear.
