 Online Weekly Giving
 “Give and gifts will be given to you; a good measure, packed together, shaken down, and overflowing, will be poured into your lap. For the measure with which you measure will in return be measured out to you.” Luke 6:38 This is a promise from God that He doesn't need a large amount, but will honor our generosity and obedience. Then, He can do a miracle to multiply and pour out blessings that overflow to our lives and others.

Our Parish Mission Statement: Formed by God’s word and nourished at the Eucharist, we strive to be faithful witnesses to Jesus Christ by handing on the Catholic faith to our families and community and serving those in need.

Breaking Open the Word

Reflecting on next Sunday's Gospel before you come to Mass can bring so much more meaning to your experience of the Liturgy. Here's the Gospel for next Sunday. How does this Gospel touch your life?

October 15, 2023

Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Mt 22:1-14

Jesus again in reply spoke to the chief priests and elders of the people in parables, saying, "The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a king who gave a wedding feast for his son. He dispatched his servants to summon the invited guests to the feast, but they refused to come. A second time he sent other servants, saying, 'Tell those invited: "Behold, I have prepared my banquet, my calves and fattened cattle are killed, and everything is ready; come to the feast."' Some ignored the invitation and went away, one to his farm, another to his business. The rest laid hold of his servants, mistreated them, and killed them. The king was enraged and sent his troops, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city. Then he said to his servants, 'The feast is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy to come. Go out, therefore, into the main roads and invite to the feast whomever you find.' The servants went out into the streets and gathered all they found, bad and good alike, and the hall was filled with guests. But when the king came in to meet the guests, he saw a man there not dressed in a wedding garment. The king said to him, 'My friend, how is it that you came in here without a wedding garment?' But he was reduced to silence. Then the king said to his attendants, 'Bind his hands and feet, and cast him into the darkness outside, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth.' Many are invited, but few are chosen."

Reflection Questions

- What does the wedding feast represent? How is this similar to the kingdom of heaven?
- Who were the servants inviting? How did they respond? Why do you think they rejected the invitation?
- What did the king do when they declined His invitation (invited them again)? What does this teach us about the king?
- What do you learn about the king from His reaction after they continued to reject His invitation?
- What does this parable teach us about what our job is in the kingdom of heaven? If you were in this parable, which person would you be? What is our role?

2023 Thanksgiving Food Drive

Thanksgiving will be here before we know it! Due to the rise in food prices, we expect to get many more families in need. We are requesting your donation of any of the following items that would be included in the Thanksgiving Food Baskets: potatoes/potato flakes, fried onions, canned vegetables, Corn muffin mix, tea/coffee, canned soup, pasta, canned yams, gravy, stuffing, cranberry sauce, juice, bread, desserts. Due to the lack of freezer space, we would prefer supermarket gift cards for the purchase of the turkeys. In addition, cash donations will also be appreciated; collected money will be used to purchase any needed items to complete the food baskets.
