Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

A Message from our Pastor

Dear Friends,

Each year, our diocese honors those catechists who have been teaching for significant amounts of time. Last Sunday, we gathered at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel in Patchogue for a celebration to recognize the many years these dedicated men and women have spent in handing on our Catholic faith to the children of our parishes. Bishop Andrzej spoke eloquently about the need to anchor our teaching on those four marks of the Church that we profess each Sunday – One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic. Our unity is drawn from and returns to the Eucharist. We are one by the faith we profess, by the Word of God, and by the sacraments we receive. We are all called to holiness, each according to his or her vocation. The catholicity of our faith means that we welcome everyone of all backgrounds and cultures. Finally, our great Catholic tradition rests on the accounts of those eyewitnesses to Our Lord as He lived among us, teaching and healing, and ultimately giving His life for us and rising again. As the expression goes, “we stand on the shoulders of giants” when it comes to the richness of our faith.

At our parish, we are privileged to have a group of catechists who are passionate about working with our kids to help them learn our faith and prepare them to receive the sacraments. Among this year’s honorees was Mrs. Patricia Lynch, who has been a catechist in our parish for 50 years! She is in a very special club of catechists in our diocese who have reached such a milestone. Many of you know Pat from our Outreach ministry, singing in the choir, or attending many of our programs and activities as a faithful parishioner. We applaud Pat for this achievement and offer her our sincerest appreciation for her faithful service.

Recognizing those who teach our faith should serve as a reminder to all of us that we, too, are called to hand on the faith. Yes, some of us do so “full time” as ordained clergy or as trained lay professionals. Others are committed volunteers, like our catechists. But everyone – without exception – has been commissioned through Baptism and Confirmation to be heralds of the Gospel, sharing our belief in word and deed. Please God, we all remain steadfast in this most important work for our good and for the salvation of all souls!

Sincerely yours,

Eucharistic Miracle of SOKÓŁKA

POLAND, OCTOBER 12, 2008

On October 12, 2008, at the church dedicated to Saint Anthony of Sokółka, the Holy Mass of 8:30 AM is celebrated by a young vicar, Filip Zdrodowski. During Communion, unknowingly the Host falls from the hands of one of the priests. A woman kneeling, ready to receive the Eucharist, makes him notice it. The priest remains paralyzed from fright and believing it was dirty, places it in the vasculum, a small silver vessel which contains the water utilized by priests to wash their fingers after distributing Communion. At the end of the Holy Mass, the sacristan, Sister Julia Dubowska, takes the vasculum with the Host and for increased safety pours it into another vessel which she then locks in the safe where the chalices were kept.

Interior Chapel where the precious Relic is kept

Church dedicated to Saint Anthony in Sokółka

The fragment of the partially dissolved Host with the blood colored substance emanated from its interior is the relic that was placed on the white corporal with an embroidered red cross.

Tabernacle where miraculous Host that fell to the ground was first stored

Photo of Sister Julia Dubowska who first saw the Host transformed into flesh, exactly into tissue of the myocardial muscle.

Safe where the miraculous Host was stored

A week later, on Sunday, October 19, around 8:00 AM, the sister opens the safe and finds the Host almost dissolved but with some strange red dots in the center. She immediately calls the priests to show them what was discovered. The Host was mostly dissolved. Only a very small piece of the consecrated bread was left, tightly interconnected to the substance that appeared on its surface. Actually, part of the Host was joined to that "strange red dot". The pastor of Sokółka then contacted the Metropolitan Curia of Białystok. Archbishop Edward Ozorowski together with the Chancellor of the Curia, priests and professors examined the Host and, astounded, decide to wait for the development of the events and to see what would happen next. On October 29 the vessel containing the Host is brought into the parish chapel and locked in the tabernacle; the next day, on order of the Archbishop, Father Gniedziejko delicately removes with a small spoon the partially dissolved Host with the blood colored substance on its interior and places it on a pure white corporal, with a red cross embroidered on its center. The corporal is kept in the case used for keeping and carrying the Hosts, to be then locked again in the tabernacle. Over time the Host "fused" with the corporal and the red "dot" dried. Only then two scientists of global fame and specialists in pathological anatomy at the Medical University of Białystok were consulted. The Metropolitan Curia of Białystok has released this declaration concerning the Eucharistic Miracle that occurred at Sokółka:

"1. On October 12, 2008, a consecrated Host fell out of the hands of a priest while he was distributing Holy Communion. He picked it up and placed it in a vessel filled with water, in the tabernacle. After Mass, the vessel containing the host was placed in a safe present in the sacristy.

2. On October 19, 2008, after opening the safe one could clearly see a red stain on the Host that had fallen, which with the naked eye immediately gave the impression of being a bloodstain.

3. On October 29, 2008, the vessel containing the Host was transferred to the tabernacle of the chapel of the rectory. The next day the Host was removed from the water contained in the vessel and placed on a corporal inside the tabernacle.

4. On January 7, 2009, the sample of the Host was taken and examined independently by two professionals in histopathology at the University of Medicine of Białystok. They issued a common declaration which states: "The sample sent for evaluation looks like myocardial tissue. In our opinion, of all the tissues of living organisms this is the one that resembles it the most."

5. The Commission has noted that the analyzed Host is the same one that has been moved from the sacristy to the tabernacle in the chapel of the rectory. Intervention by a third party has not been found.

6. The case of Sokółka does not contradict the faith of the Church, but rather confirms it."

Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Mt 25:14-30

Jesus told his disciples this parable: "A man going on a journey called in his servants and entrusted his possessions to them. To one he gave five talents; to another, two; to a third, one-- to each according to his ability. Then he went away. Immediately the one who received five talents went and traded with them, and made another five. Likewise, the one who received two made another two. But the man who received one went off and dug a hole in the ground and buried his master's money. "After a long time the master of those servants came back and settled accounts with them. The one who had received five talents came forward bringing the additional five. He said, 'Master, you gave me five talents. See, I have made five more.' His master said to him, 'Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities. Come, share your master's joy.' Then the one who had received two talents also came forward and said, 'Master, you gave me two talents. See, I have made two more.' His master said to him, 'Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities. Come, share your master's joy.' Then the one who had received the one talent came forward and said, 'Master, I knew you were a demanding person, harvesting where you did not plant and gathering where you did not scatter; so out of fear I went off and buried your talent in the ground. Here it is back.' His master said to him in reply, 'You wicked, lazy servant! So you knew that I harvest where I did not plant and gather where I did not scatter? Should you not then have put my money in the bank so that I could have got it back with interest on my return?'"

Now then! Take the talent from him and give it to the one with ten. For to everyone who has, more will be given and he will grow rich; but from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away. And throw this useless servant into the darkness outside, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth."

Reflection Questions

- Who does the man going on a journey represent? Who are the servants that have been entrusted with his possessions? What does the Master expect from them?
- What is a talent in this parable? When did the man on the journey return? What will he do when he does return? What had the first 2 servants done and what was the master's response? In what way did the third servant attack his master's character?
- Are you utilizing the skills, resources and opportunities God has given you? Do you take advantage of all that God offers to you for the sake of His kingdom?

God Sighting-The community from Temple Isaiah in Stony Brook once again wanted to assist our outreach efforts in providing families with help for Thanksgiving and donated over 40 bags of food. On Sunday November 5th, some of their Religious School students held a Thanksgiving food drive at Stop & Shop in Setauket. How incredible of them!! It fills our hearts seeing the joy and the connection continue between our religious communities! We wish them a blessed and very Happy Thanksgiving!

Veterans Day Prayer

Lord God, we thank you for the gift of veterans and their humble service to you. Because they served our country, as your Son humbly served you, bless them and keep them close to your heart, especially those with disabilities, and those who endure any kind of suffering. We also ask that you help those who are transitioning back into civilian life, particularly those who struggle to find a job upon returning home. Provide the mental and spiritual strength they need to best serve you in the way they live their lives. Please bestow grace on their families and watch over them and their fallen friends. Give them peace, protection and continue to be with them and their loved ones. In Your holy name we pray. Amen.
