Sunday of Divine Mercy

Divine Mercy Sunday

All are invited to the Infant Jesus Chapel at St. Charles Hospital on Sunday, April 7th at 3pm.

“From that Heart of Christ, Sr. Faustina Kowalska, the blessed whom from now on we will call a saint, will see two rays of light shining from that heart and illuminating the world. “The two rays”, Jesus Himself explained to her one day, “represent blood and water” (Diary, entry 299). Blood and water! We immediately think of the testimony given by the Evangelist John, who, when a soldier on Calvary pierced Christ’s side with his spear, sees blood and water flowing from it (see Jn 19:34). Moreover, if the blood recalls the sacrifice of the Cross and the gift of the Eucharist, the water, in Johannine symbolism, represents not only Baptism but also the gift of the Holy Spirit (see Jn 3:5; 4:14; 7:37-39). “- St. Pope John Paul II

Online Weekly Giving

“Give and gifts will be given to you; a good measure, packed together, shaken down, and overflowing, will be poured into your lap. For the measure with which you measure will in return be measured out to you.” Luke 6:38 This is a promise from God that He doesn't need a large amount, but will honor our generosity and obedience. Then, He can do a miracle to multiply and pour out blessings that overflow to our lives and others.

Breaking Open the Word

Reflecting on next Sunday's Gospel before you come to Mass can bring so much more meaning to your experience of the Liturgy. Here's the Gospel for next Sunday. How does this Gospel touch your life?

April 14, 2024

Third Sunday of Easter

Lk 24:35-48

The two disciples recounted what had taken place on the way, and how Jesus was made known to them in the breaking of bread.

While they were still speaking about this, he stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." But they were startled and terrified and thought that they were seeing a ghost. Then he said to them, "Why are you troubled? And why do questions arise in your hearts? Look at my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Touch me and see, because a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you can see I have." And as he said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. While they were still incredulous for joy and were amazed, he asked them, "Have you anything here to eat?" They gave him a piece of baked fish; he took it and ate it in front of them.

He said to them, "These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the law of Moses and in the prophets and psalms must be fulfilled." Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures.

And he said to them, "Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance, for the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things."

Reflection Questions

- Why did the disciples go from being terrified to experiencing unconceivable joy?
- What was the disciples' task, having recognized the risen Lord, and having seen that he "opened their minds to understand the scripture,"?
- Why do we need to have our minds opened to understand the scriptures?
- How does receiving the word of God, of having it implanted (instilled) in us, transform our lives?
- What are the practical ways to receive the word of God?

WANTED YOUR “EXTRA STUFF”

Over the last several months we have seen a greater-than-usual demand for items we sell in our barn. Because of this increase, we are currently in need of housewares, pots, pans, home décor items, bric-a-brac, small furniture items, towels, CDs, video games, vinyl records, etc. to restock our barn shelves.

As you begin your annual spring cleaning, we would ask you to please keep us in mind for your unwanted items.

Sales from merchandise donated to the thrift shop and barn directly affect the Parish’s ability to provide outreach services to the clients we serve. Thank you, in advance, for your continued support of the charitable endeavors of St. Gerard Majella Church and the role our thrift shop and barn play in making these services available.
