Fifth Sunday of Easter

A Message from our Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

In the coming weeks, dozens of our young brothers and sisters will receive Our Lord Jesus Christ in Holy Communion. As we all probably remember from our own First Communion, or from that of our children, it is an exciting time for families. This year, there is a particular joy for us, as these celebrations take place against the backdrop of our National Eucharistic Revival. This is a time for all of us to deepen our love and appreciation for the precious gift of the Eucharist that we are invited to receive at every Mass.

The amazing team of catechists in our parish's Religious Education Program spend months preparing our little ones for this sacrament. We work also with their parents and families to help them draw more closely to the sacramental life of the Church, especially at Sunday Mass. Life can be hectic. We know that. Schedules fluctuate amid the many obligations kids and parents have. But there is nothing that can compare to the one hour each week when we are invited to hear God's Word speaking to our hearts and then to receive His very Real Presence within our bodies in Holy Communion. Please pray for those who will receive the Blessed Sacrament for the first time over these next few weeks and for their families. May all of us be built up in our awareness of God's love for us and respond generously to His call to be his presence in the world!

Sincerely,

Loving Heart of Jesus, You have said that You would always be with us, even to the end of the age, and so You give us Yourself in the Most Holy Eucharist. At each and every Mass, You unite Yourself with us in a unique and special way. You are closer to us than our own heartbeats. We pray that each and every child who receives You for the first time will in some way feel You present within that Sacrament. We pray that they will realize how very much they are loved by You, and how eager You are to give Yourself to their precious little hearts.

We pray, Lord Jesus, that they may be able to reciprocate Your love by entrusting themselves completely to You and by throwing themselves confidently into Your arms whenever they are in need of reassurance or help. We pray that these little ones will gladden You and console Your most Sacred Heart. May all parents and guardians of First Communicants continue to teach their children the ways of the spiritual life and raise steadfast and staunch Catholic souls who will build up the Church and bring about Your Kingdom on earth.

Amen.

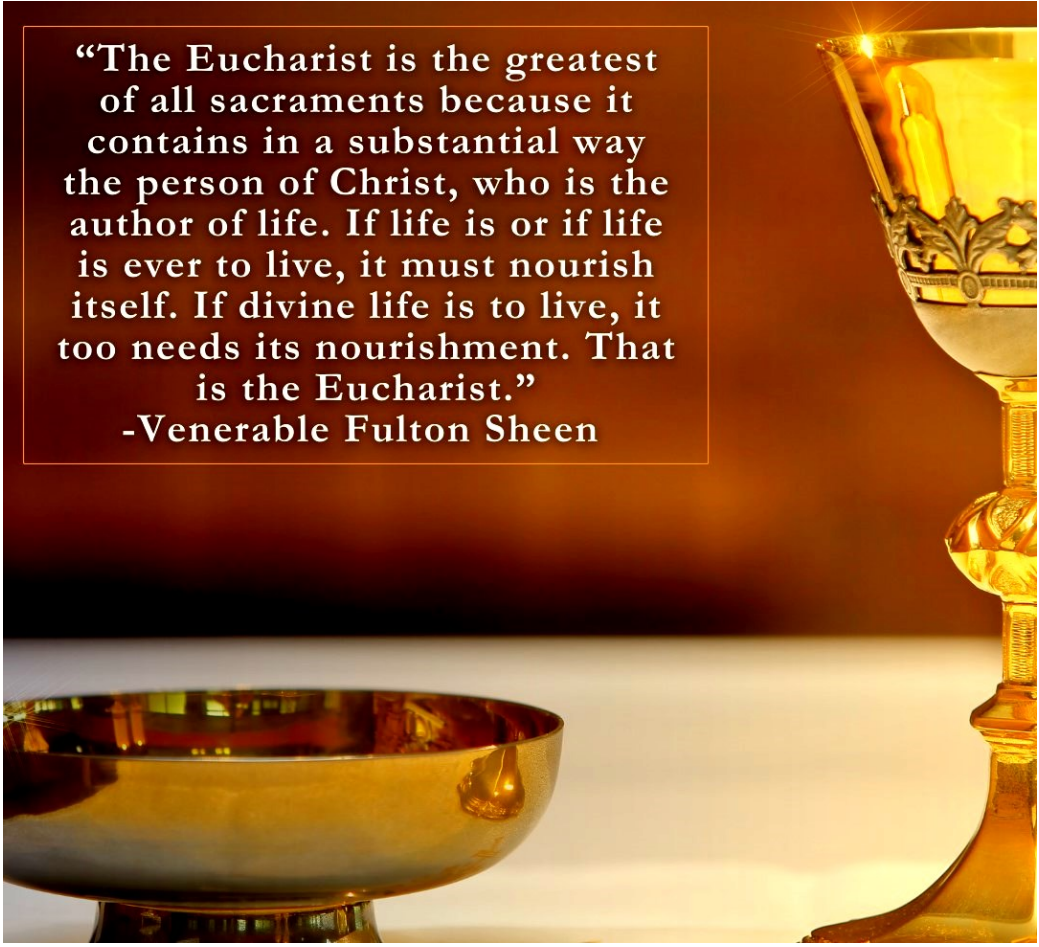

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION
FIRST
THURSDAY OF
EACH MONTH
7PM

“Just picture Jesus as if He is sitting up there on the altar—because He is. He is just talking to you and you’re talking to Him. What does He want to tell you? What do you want to say to Him?”
-Beautiful Eucharist

Please join us this coming Thursday, May 2nd at 7pm in the Church.

“The Eucharist is the greatest of all sacraments because it contains in a substantial way the person of Christ, who is the author of life. If life is or if life is ever to live, it must nourish itself. If divine life is to live, it too needs its nourishment. That is the Eucharist.”
-Venerable Fulton Sheen

Breaking Open the Word

Reflecting on next Sunday's Gospel before you come to Mass can bring so much more meaning to your experience of the Liturgy. Here's the Gospel for next Sunday. How does this Gospel touch your life?

May 5, 2024

Sixth Sunday of Easter

Jn 15:9-17

Jesus said to his disciples:

"As the Father loves me, so I also love you. Remain in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and remain in his love.

"I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and your joy might be complete. This is my commandment: love one another as I love you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. I no longer call you slaves, because a slave does not know what his master is doing. I have called you friends, because I have told you everything I have heard from my Father. It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name he may give you. This I command you: love one another."

Reflection Questions

- How can we abide in His love? What does this mean?
- What does "My joy" mean? What was Jesus' joy?
- If Jesus is happy with us, what level of "joy" do we have?
- What kind of friendship is this that we need to obey His commands? What is His show of friendship? What is yours?
- What does it mean to love your neighbor as yourself?
- What does "whatever you ask the Father in My name He may give you" indicate? How is this different today?

SPRING cleaning?

Your Donations Can Help Others!

Over the last several months we have seen a greater-than-usual demand for items we sell in our both our thrift shop and barn. Because of this increase, we are currently in need of housewares, pots, pans, home décor items, bric-a-brac, small furniture, towels, CDs, video games, vinyl records, costume jewelry, summer clothing, etc. to restock our shelves in both buildings.

As you do your annual spring cleaning, please keep us in mind for your unwanted items.

Sales from merchandise donated to the thrift shop and barn directly affect the Parish's ability to provide outreach services to the clients we serve. Thank you, in advance, for your continued support of the charitable endeavors of St. Gerard Majella Church and the role our thrift shop and barn play in making these services available.

We will be open on Saturday,
May 4 from 10-2
