Jennifer Donnellon-Office Manager

What is your favorite season of the year? Spring...the air just smells so beautiful!

What is a hobby of yours? Spending as much time as I can with mascot, Leo! He really helped me get through my divorce by showing me unconditional love. Dogs are the best!

Where is the best place you have ever visited? Lake George, NY

What brings you joy? Being a part of the St. Gerard/ Infant Jesus communities, spending time with my family, and being outside.

What time of day do you like to pray? morning

What is a special prayer that is your go to? Serenity prayer

What is your Confirmation name? Mary

How did it come to be that you have this position in our church? Way back when I was 17 years old, I applied for the job at the front desk on Sundays. I instantly fell in love with working in the church community. I wake up happy every day knowing I have this incredible job.

Our Parishioner's Journey to the National Eucharistic Congress!

I was and still am involved in many ministries here. Over the years I have been a catechist, Events Coordinator (whatever that is, a position made up for me to be able to be part of the staff), catechetical leader of Faith Formation, Eucharistic Minister, lector, choir member and general all round helper. These ministries helped me to feel like I belonged and that lead to a stronger belief in Jesus and the Church.

Stay tuned for Part 2!!

Assumption of Mary- August 15th Feast Day

One glance at a daily newspaper or a television news show will tell you that some people do not value human life. But this is not news. During the Holocaust of World War II, millions of people were tortured and killed. This terrible tragedy led many people to wonder about human life. How valuable is a single human life? How valuable are the lives of the elderly, the unborn, the terminally ill? Are their lives worth as much as those of people who are healthy and active, working, and raising families?

God creates human life and gives it value. And Jesus gave his life on the cross to redeem each individual human person. By doing this, Jesus said, "Your life is worth my dying to save you." Through his own Resurrection, Jesus showed us the glory of our resurrection and of our living in the Holy Spirit. Jesus promised that the body and soul of a person, separated at death, will be joined together again in glory at the Last Judgment. The person will be whole for all eternity.

The feast of Mary's Assumption is a preview of what our lives will be. At the end of her earthly life, Mary was assumed, or taken up, into heaven body and soul. She did not have to wait for the end of the world, as we do. God granted her this special privilege because of her sinlessness and her fullness of grace.

The Church has always believed in Mary's assumption into heaven. But on November 1, 1950, Pope Pius XII focused the attention of the whole world on the Assumption of Mary as a dogma and mystery of our faith. This mystery shows us that God wants every human person, body and soul, to be in glory forever, just as Mary is now. This dogma shows how important every single human life is. Pope Plus XII hoped that by thinking about Mary's Assumption, people all over the world would develop a deeper respect for their own lives and their own bodies. He also hoped that people would grow in respect for the lives of others. (Loyola Press)

Breaking Open the Word

Reflecting on next Sunday's Gospel before you come to Mass can bring so much more meaning to your experience of the Liturgy. Here's the Gospel for next Sunday. How does this Gospel touch your life?

August 18, 2024

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jn 6:51-58

Jesus said to the crowds:

"I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world."

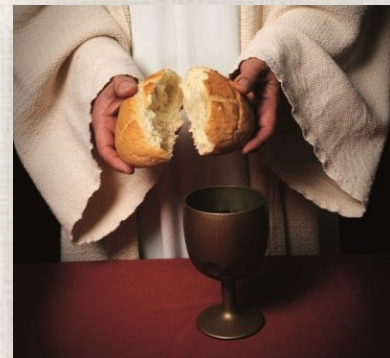

The Jews quarreled among themselves, saying, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?"

Jesus said to them,

"Amen, amen, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day. For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him. Just as the living Father sent me and I have life because of the Father, so also the one who feeds on me will have life because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven. Unlike your ancestors who ate and still died, whoever eats this bread will live forever."

Reflection Questions

- What is said about this "bread of life" in John 6:51? So what is Jesus telling people to feed on to have everlasting life?
- Why does Jesus call Himself the "Son of Man"?
- What does Jesus mean by "The one who ... drinks My blood has everlasting life"?
- Does Jesus 'lighten up' His message to make it easier for them to understand?
- What is Jesus saying we must do to have "everlasting life"?
- How important is the rest of your life vs. living "forever"?
- In today's reading, Jesus is telling us about the special gift he gives us in the Eucharist. In the Eucharist, the bread and the wine become the Body and Blood of Christ. When we share in the Eucharist, Jesus makes himself one with us. This is what eternal life means, being with God and Jesus forever. Take some time this week to thank God for this gift of Holy Communion.

To commemorate the Feast of Our Lady of Knock, a Prayer Service will be held at Saint James R.C. Church in Setauket on Wednesday, August 21, 2024 at 01:00 p.m. in the Church (following the weekly 12 noon to 1 p.m. Holy Hour Adoration)
