Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

A Message from our Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Over the past few weeks, some of you have remarked about the reformatted cover of the weekly bulletin. Now, clearly listed, are all the clergy who live and serve at both parishes. Others have asked why they haven't seen certain deacons as much at their usual Masses. The response to both is the same: When I became Pastor of Infant Jesus in addition to St. Gerard's, it was not only I who now led two parishes, but all the clergy were now responsible for the pastoral care of the 11,000 families in this area. For the first years of my pastorate, the deacons served as the anchors only at the Masses in their respective parishes, while we priests rotated through both parishes. Now, all the clergy, deacons and priests, will rotate through the 12 weekend Masses in both parishes.

While one or more deacons may be a new face to some parishioners, Deacons John, Frank and Carlito have been involved in ministry both at St. Gerard's and at Infant Jesus. Deacon John has helped with Religious Education, Baptism Formation for Parents, and will be assisting me with training the Altar Servers and other Liturgical Ministers. Deacon Frank has taught a couple of Adult Enrichment courses and looks forward to more. And Deacon Carlito serves as my Pastoral Associate for Administration and, like me, is constantly going back-and-forth on Rt. 112 to attend to all the daily needs of both parishes. I know their presence will enhance our already vibrant communities, and I am grateful for their pastoral zeal.

On another note, the month of November is traditionally set aside by the Church as a time to remember and pray for our beloved dead. Having begun this month with All Saints Day and All Souls Day, it is a good reminder to us of the immense good we do when we have Mass offered for the soul of a deceased loved one. The grace afforded to a soul in the process of being purified, and prepared for heaven by the merits of the Eucharist, is beyond measure. In fact, we are never closer to our loved ones who have died than when we are at Mass. We join in the song of the angels and saints every time we proclaim: "Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of hosts. Heaven and earth are full of your glory!" At Mass, it is not only we who are physically present who participate, but it is a celebration that includes those in the other realms of the Communion of Saints – those in purgatory, and the saints in heaven.

If it is not your practice already, I strongly encourage you to have Mass offered for your deceased loved ones. Even if you are unable to attend the Mass you have offered, it is still of great benefit to souls. We are on this journey together, all of us living lives of virtue, so that one day we will inherit the Kingdom of God!

Sincerely yours in Christ,

The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

Jn 18:33b-37

Pilate said to Jesus, "Are you the King of the Jews?" Jesus answered, "Do you say this on your own or have others told you about me?" Pilate answered, "I am not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests handed you over to me. What have you done?" Jesus answered, "My kingdom does not belong to this world. If my kingdom did belong to this world, my attendants would be fighting to keep me from being handed over to the Jews. But as it is, my kingdom is not here." So Pilate said to him, "Then you are a king?" Jesus answered, "You say I am a king. For this I was born and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice."

Reflection Questions

- What truths does Jesus state to Pilate?
- What was the reason Jesus took on flesh and came to earth?
- Does Pilate treat Jesus as if he believes he is royalty? What does Jesus say about his kingdom?
- What does Pilate mean by, "Am I a Jew? Your own nation and the chief priests have delivered You to me" ?
- How does Jesus answer Pilate's question, "What have You done"?
- What characteristics does Jesus share with our impressions about royalty?
- How do we show that we honor Jesus as king?
- Pray this week the Lord's Prayer and ask God to help you and your family act in ways that show you recognize and honor Christ as King.
