Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

A Message from our Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

As we come to the close of the liturgical year with the great Solemnity of Christ the King of the Universe, our Gospel shares that powerful scene – Christ’s exchange with Pontius Pilate only a short time before the final judgment of His death by Crucifixion. How humble our Savior is in accepting this judgment. He, who is Life and Truth itself, accepts the unjust sentence from a cowardly leader who bends to the will of a mob rather than do what he knows to be right. Here is our King – the One who delivers himself up to death so that we might live forever. For us, the only reasonable response to such humble love is to lay down our entire lives for Him and to allow him truly to reign over every aspect of our lives. In doing so, we are ruled not by tyrannical fear but rather by the One who is Love itself and Who desires us to live our lives to the fullness until we come to enjoy perfection with Him in eternity.

Two Fridays ago, Infant Jesus Parish hosted the monthly diocesan Holy Hour for Vocations. About 125 people gathered before the Blessed Sacrament to pray for this very important intention. Many of those in attendance were young adults, some of whom are certainly discerning a call to the priesthood or religious life. It was wonderful to see many of our parishioners of all ages join with them united in prayer that more young people would heed the call of the Master of the harvest to go out into His vineyard to serve. It’s a reminder to us that we need to pray regularly for the clergy of our Church and that more will embrace joyfully the beautiful life of ordained ministry.

This coming week, as we celebrate our national day of Thanksgiving, allow me to express again my immense gratitude to all. I speak on behalf of my brother priests and deacons when I say how blessed we are to have been called to the ordained ministry and specifically to serve here at our parishes. The past two years have seen a deepening of the collaboration of both Infant Jesus and St. Gerard’s, the fruit of which has been evident and abundant. Your continued support and encouragement mean a great deal. As Pastor, I am humbled that I have been appointed to shepherd the clergy and professional staffs of both parishes who are zealous in their desire to bring the warmth of the Gospel and the light of our Faith to everyone who comes through our doors. I know you join me in thanking them for their tireless efforts every day.

May you and your families experience many blessings in the coming holiday season, and may those who find these days a bit more challenging because of heartache be consoled by our community and by a deep faith in God’s closeness. God bless you and a Happy Thanksgiving to all!

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Breaking Open the Word

Reflecting on next Sunday's Gospel before you come to Mass can bring so much more meaning to your experience of the Liturgy. Here's the Gospel for next Sunday. How does this Gospel touch your life?

December 1, 2024

First Sunday of Advent

Lk 21:25-28, 34-36

Jesus said to his disciples:

"There will be signs in the sun, the moon, and the stars, and on earth nations will be in dismay, perplexed by the roaring of the sea and the waves. People will die of fright in anticipation of what is coming upon the world, for the powers of the heavens will be shaken. And then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. But when these signs begin to happen, stand erect and raise your heads because your redemption is at hand. "Beware that your hearts do not become drowsy from carousing and drunkenness and the anxieties of daily life, and that day catch you by surprise like a trap. For that day will assault everyone who lives on the face of the earth. Be vigilant at all times and pray that you have the strength to escape the tribulations that are imminent and to stand before the Son of Man."

Reflection Questions

- Why does Jesus say that his disciples should not be frightened by the signs he describes?
- What does Jesus say that his disciples should do to prepare for these times?
- How would this teaching affect both Jesus' hearers and the first-century readers of Luke's Gospel? How does it affect you?
- Which are we more easily weighed down by: the pleasures of the world or the cares of this life? Why does Jesus give us such a warning: How might these pleasures or cares distract or prevent us from living in light of Christ's return?
- At this start of the new Church year, consider what "Advent resolutions" your family might make to help you stay focused so that you will be prepared to receive the salvation we celebrate at Jesus' birth and anticipate at Jesus' second coming.
- We don't need to be fearful about difficult things in our lives either. We can bring these things to God in our prayer, and God will help us see things clearly and give us the strength to face everything and anything that might happen in our lives. How can you be less fearful this coming week?
