National Marriage Week

Marriage
SOURCE OF HOPE,
SPRING OF RENEWAL PURSUE A lasting love

National Marriage Week USA
MARRIAGE IS WORTH IT! • EVERY FEB 7-14

  @foryourmarriage

As the Church participates in National Marriage Week and the Jubilee of Hope, the importance of humility in the covenant of marriage is worth a bit of timely reflection. Of all the virtues that complement marital love, humility strengthens the marriage bond at its core. Humility encourages selfless generosity between spouses and makes a couple's marital love more resilient. When spouses humbly offer love to each other, the daily familial bumps and bruises that happen heal more quickly. With each gesture of humility, whether in word or action, the pursuit of lasting love becomes more than just a fanciful idea; it finds a home where it is lived and felt. When spouses are humble before each other, love grows. The Eucharist is an immense source of strength for all Christians seeking to live humbly. At each celebration of Christ's sacrificial love, we begin by acknowledging our sins and brokenness in the penitential rite and then are fed at the table of the Word of God and in the sacrament of his body and blood. Strengthened and nourished, we are blessed and sent forth as renewed disciples as his humble servants. When we gather, stand, and kneel to celebrate the Lord's love for us, we are saying by our presence, "Save me, Lord, because I cannot save myself." The willingness to be humble before God and neighbor is never easy. Humility is a demanding virtue. Often, every fiber of our being resists being humble. The classic country song by Mac Davis hits the nail on the head, "O Lord, it is hard to be humble when you are perfect in every way." How does a person grow in humility? Blessed Solanus Casey wrote by being humiliated. Blessed Casey's straightforward answer is insightful and almost funny because it is so true. He wrote, "God knows we need humiliations whereby we can foster humility. Hence in His love, He never fails to provide occasions for each one to practice penance which means in other words to check self-conceit and, with God's help, to get somewhere in humility." To live a virtuous life is the call of every Christian. Humility is the keystone of all the virtues. May we all strive to live in the truth of who we are before God and each other as his humble people, imitating Jesus' selfless love, thinking of others before ourselves, and showing the world how to discover lasting love. -USCCB

OUR FATHER

When Jesus' disciples asked Him, "Lord, teach us to pray," He taught them the Our Father. It is a perfect prayer that covers all of our physical and spiritual needs. We begin by addressing God as Our Father in Heaven followed by seven petitions. The first petition, "Hallowed (Holy) be Thy name," is not a statement that God's name is Holy but rather a request that through our words and actions we may make God's name Holy. God created us in such a way that our purest, deepest happiness comes only from living in communion with Him. This petition reflects that first step we must take to lead a good life. We must acknowledge God as our Father and ask Him to help us obey and love Him. The first months of the New Year invite us to reflection, renewal, and a fresh start. There is no better way to do this than to re-center our lives on God. This is the foundation of self-care. This is the way to find true peace, hope and joy.

Online Weekly Giving

"Give and gifts will be given to you; a good measure, packed together, shaken down, and overflowing, will be poured into your lap. For the measure with which you measure will in return be measured out to you." Luke 6:38 This is a promise from God that He doesn't need a large amount, but will honor our generosity and obedience. Then, He can do a miracle to multiply and pour out blessings that overflow to our lives and others.

Breaking Open the Word

Reflecting on next Sunday's Gospel before you come to Mass can bring so much more meaning to your experience of the Liturgy. Here's the Gospel for next Sunday. How does this Gospel touch your life?

February 16, 2025

Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Lk 6:17, 20-26

Jesus came down with the Twelve and stood on a stretch of level ground with a great crowd of his disciples and a large number of the people from all Judea and Jerusalem and the coastal region of Tyre and Sidon.

And raising his eyes toward his disciples he said:

"Blessed are you who are poor,
for the kingdom of God is yours.
Blessed are you who are now hungry,
for you will be satisfied.
Blessed are you who are now weeping,
for you will laugh.
Blessed are you when people hate you,
and when they exclude and insult you,
and denounce your name as evil
on account of the Son of Man.

Rejoice and leap for joy on that day!
Behold, your reward will be great in heaven.
For their ancestors treated the prophets in the same way.

But woe to you who are rich,
for you have received your consolation.
Woe to you who are filled now,
for you will be hungry.
Woe to you who laugh now,
for you will grieve and weep.
Woe to you when all speak well of you,
for their ancestors treated the false prophet in this way."

Reflection Questions

- Why is it important to correctly identify the audience of Jesus' sermon on the plane?
- Jesus contrasts what it means to experience or not experience God's blessing. What do you think it means to be blessed?
- Do we look at life and at persons with the same look of Jesus? What do you think in your heart: is a poor and hungry person truly happy? The stories which we see on television, what ideal of happiness do they present?
- In saying: "Blessed are the poor", did Jesus want to say that the poor have to continue to be poor?
- What is the measure of success in the Kingdom of God?
- Pray this week asking God to help your family seek the blessings of the Kingdom of God.
