Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

A Message from our Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

By now you have likely seen the informational posters and brochures about this year's Catholic Ministries Appeal (CMA). The CMA is a crucial initiative that enables the Church on Long Island to fulfill its mission of spreading the Gospel, teaching our Faith, and caring for those in need. I am grateful for the many who have contributed to this important fund over the years and, if you haven't already, I ask you to consider prayerfully becoming a part of it.

I know the work of CMA well. For several years of my priestly ministry, I simultaneously had four jobs – Vice Rector of the Seminary in Huntington, Director of Diaconate Formation, Catholic Chaplain at Hofstra University and Associate Director of Ecumenical/Interreligious Affairs. All those roles were funded by the CMA. Whether it was building bridges with other religious communities, encouraging college-age men and women to engage their Catholic faith, or training men to serve as deacons, the kindness of people like you made it all possible.

These days, there is a lot of talk about how taxpayers' dollars are spent. Regardless of political ideology, I think we can all agree that we need to be responsible with how we spend our money. Well, I can attest firsthand that the Catholic Ministries Appeal goes directly to the ministries I've mentioned and many others that have a direct impact on people in our neighborhoods. Some have questioned whether our diocese's recent bankruptcy settlement has or will ever be funded by CMA donations. The answer is a firm, definitive "no." New York State charitable giving laws strictly prohibit such crossover, so you can rest assured that every dollar given goes directly to programs and people in our diocese.

There is also an additional benefit for our parish. If we meet or exceed our annual goal, we get a rebate of some of that money, which helps our parish tremendously. In short, the CMA is a win-win program for everyone. Please be sure to take a brochure before leaving church today, and keep an eye on the ads about the CMA in our weekly bulletins. You'll read about people's stories of how the Catholic Church on Long Island helped them in their time of need. You can even scan the QR code below to learn more about ways to give.

Thank you for your continued kindness to our parish and diocese. May you have joy and blessings in the coming week!

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Indulgences as Gifts of Love

According to the Enchiridion Of Indulgences, “[A]n indulgence is a remission before God of the temporal punishment due to sins whose guilt has already been forgiven, which the faithful Christian who is duly disposed gains under certain prescribed conditions through the action of the Church which, as the minister of redemption, dispenses and applies with authority the treasury of the satisfactions of Christ and the saints.” That is, indulgences can help shorten a person’s stay in Purgatory!

Step By Step Instructions

Again, from the Enchiridion Of Indulgences (although paraphrased), here is how to gain a plenary indulgence for a soul in Purgatory today and each and every day, in only seven easy steps: 1. Intend to gain the plenary indulgence for a soul in Purgatory. It could be for anyone, including “the most forgotten soul.”

2. Pray one Our Father, one Hail Mary, and one Glory Be for the intentions of the Pope.

3. Receive Sacramental confession. You may receive this Sacrament up to 20 days before or after today.

Note: If you go to confession once per month, you will meet this requirement. 4. Be in a state of grace. This is all the more reason to stay in a state of grace – because when you are, you can give this amazing gift to others! 5. Detach from sin. You must have the interior disposition of complete detachment from sin, even venial sin. Think in terms of authentically renouncing, in your heart, all attachments to sin that you can possibly think of. Note: This doesn’t imply that you are telling God you will never sin for the rest of your life, because we all surely will. 6. Receive Holy Communion. You must receive Communion on today’s date (between midnight to midnight, not in relation to sundown like a vigil Mass). THEN, do ONE of the following three things: 7a. Pray a Rosary at a Church or with your family. 7b. Adore Jesus Christ in the Blessed Sacrament for at least 30 minutes. 7c. Read Holy Scripture piously for at least 30 minutes.

Online Weekly Giving

"Give and gifts will be given to you; a good measure, packed together, shaken down, and overflowing, will be poured into your lap. For the measure with which you measure will in return be measured out to you." Luke 6:38 This is a promise from God that He doesn't need a large amount, but will honor our generosity and obedience. Then, He can do a miracle to multiply and pour out blessings that overflow to our lives and others.

Breaking Open the Word

Reflecting on next Sunday's Gospel before you come to Mass can bring so much more meaning to your experience of the Liturgy. Here's the Gospel for next Sunday. How does this Gospel touch your life?

February 23, 2025

Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Lk 6:27-38

Jesus said to his disciples:

"To you who hear I say, love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you. To the person who strikes you on one cheek, offer the other one as well, and from the person who takes your cloak, do not withhold even your tunic. Give to everyone who asks of you, and from the one who takes what is yours do not demand it back. Do to others as you would have them do to you. For if you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners love those who love them. And if you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners do the same. If you lend money to those from whom you expect repayment, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, and get back the same amount. But rather, love your enemies and do good to them, and lend expecting nothing back; then your reward will be great and you will be children of the Most High, for he himself is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked. Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful. "Stop judging and you will not be judged. Stop condemning and you will not be condemned. Forgive and you will be forgiven. Give, and gifts will be given to you; a good measure, packed together, shaken down, and overflowing, will be poured into your lap. For the measure with which you measure will in return be measured out to you."

Reflection Questions

- Jesus' command to "love your enemies, do good to those who hate you" comes just following a teaching in which He is challenging common values (Luke 6:20-26). Why might this command shock or make little sense to many? Although we may not think of ourselves as having "enemies," what types of people might we struggle to love as Christ calls us to?
- Verse 31 says, "As you wish that others would do to you, do so to them." How is calling us to do something for our enemies more significant than calling us to not do something against our enemies? In general, how would we want others to treat us, and what would we like them to do for us? Why might Jesus have felt the need to give this instruction in the middle of a teaching on loving our enemies?
- In verses 33-35 we're told to give to those who cannot pay us back and to do good to those who may not do good to us in return. Why is this so difficult for us to do? What does this difficulty reveal about our true motives for doing good to others? What promises of God might be helpful to remember if we're struggling to live as Christ calls us to here?
- What is something specific you could do this week to fulfill Jesus' calling to love those whom you struggle to love?
