Fifth Sunday of Lent

A Message from our Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Depending on which Mass you have attended the past few Sundays, you may have seen a ritual that is part of the preparation of those in our community who are going to receive the Sacraments of Initiation – Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist – at the Easter Vigil. During these final days of our Lenten journey, the Church prays for those who are to be received into the Church by asking God to drive out of them anything that would hinder them from becoming faithful disciples of Jesus Christ. There are three people from St. Gerard's and six from Infant Jesus. As Catholics, we are meant not simply to observe these people going through the process, but to recall our own journey of faith, and to pray for a deepening of our commitment to Christ. Faith is not a spectator sport; we are players on the field each day, doing our part to build up the Kingdom of God through the witness of our lives. Please keep our nine brothers and sisters in your prayers over the next couple of weeks.

On Monday evening at 7:00 pm, we will have a Tenebrae Service in the Chapel of St. Charles Hospital. If you have never been to this service, it is a wonderful way to prepare for Holy Week. Tenebrae includes a combination of scripture and song, helping us to delve more deeply into the mystery of Christ's Passion, death, and Resurrection. Led by the combined choir of our parishes, it promises to be a moving experience. I encourage those who maybe haven't had the best Lent so far to take advantage of this time of prayer and reflection.

Finally, I would like to thank everyone who has supported our Outreach Ministry over the past weeks through donations of food, supplies, and gifts cards. Your generosity is always so impressive and helps more people than you likely realize. Christian charity is not merely altruism. It is a gift of sacrificial love to enable others to be assured of their dignity. Well over a hundred families are assisted on a regular basis, and their Easter will be more joyful because of your kindness. I would also like to thank the Outreach Coordinators, Jennifer and Vicki, along with the Knights of Columbus and volunteers who work tirelessly to collect, sort, and distribute all the donations for our families. May you be rewarded for your devotion!

May you have a blessed remainder of Lent! Be sure to join us for Tenebrae on Monday evening, and also look at the schedule for Holy Week so you can plan to be with us to commemorate the most sacred days of our faith!

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Implication of the Palms on Palm Sunday

By Simply Catholic

Palms were symbols of life among the nomadic tribes, who, when crossing the desert, rejoiced at seeing the palm tree as it indicated an oasis with life-giving water was near. Palms have long been a sign of victory, success and glory. Victorious armies or leaders returning from the battlefield or a long military campaign were welcomed by the populace jubilantly waving palm branches. Despite Jesus' peaceful manner, when the Jews waved the palms at Him and spread their clothing over which He rode, they were affording Him the honors of a conquering hero and simultaneously defying the Roman occupiers.

On Palm Sunday, we still go out to meet Him, carry the blessed palms, joyfully sing out our hosanna and join in His triumphant entrance into Jerusalem. But soon our joy turns to somberness as, clutching our palm, we hear the narrative of Christ's passion. We realize, once again, that His triumph, His true victory, will come through the cross. We know, as Jesus did, how Holy Week will end. We know that joy will turn to sorrow and back to joy. We know that through the horror of His suffering, followed by the glory of His resurrection, good will trump evil and life will trump death.

The palms we take home and put in a special place serve to remind us that Palm Sunday is not lost to the ages but that by Christ's victory we, too, can achieve everlasting life. "For us too, they [palms] must be symbols of triumph, indicative of the victory to be won in our battle against the evil in ourselves and against the evil which roams about us. As we receive the blessed palm, let us renew our pledge to conquer with Jesus, but let us not forget that it was on the cross that He conquered" ("Divine Intimacy," Father Gabriel of St. Mary Magdalen, O.C.D., Tan Books, 1997, pp. 392-393).

Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion

Luke 23:1-49

The elders of the people, chief priests and scribes, arose and brought Jesus before Pilate. They brought charges against him, saying, "We found this man misleading our people; he opposes the payment of taxes to Caesar and maintains that he is the Christ, a king." Pilate asked him, "Are you the king of the Jews?" He said to him in reply, "You say so." Pilate then addressed the chief priests and the crowds, "I find this man not guilty." But they were adamant and said, "He is inciting the people with his teaching throughout all Judea, from Galilee where he began even to here." On hearing this Pilate asked if the man was a Galilean; and upon learning that he was under Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod who was in Jerusalem at that time. Herod was very glad to see Jesus; he had been wanting to see him for a long time, for he had heard about him and had been hoping to see him perform some sign. He questioned him at length, but he gave him no answer. The chief priests and scribes, meanwhile, stood by accusing him harshly. Herod and his soldiers treated him contemptuously and mocked him, and after clothing him in resplendent garb, he sent him back to Pilate. Herod and Pilate became friends that very day, even though they had been enemies formerly. Pilate then summoned the chief priests, the rulers, and the people and said to them, "You brought this man to me and accused him of inciting the people to revolt. I have conducted my investigation in your presence and have not found this man guilty of the charges you have brought against him, nor did Herod, for he sent him back to us. So no capital crime has been committed by him. Therefore I shall have him flogged and then release him." But all together they shouted out, "Away with this man! Release Barabbas to us." — Now Barabbas had been imprisoned for a rebellion that had taken place in the city and for murder. — Again Pilate addressed them, still wishing to release Jesus, but they continued their shouting, "Crucify him! Crucify him!" Pilate addressed them a third time, "What evil has this man done? I found him guilty of no capital crime. Therefore I shall have him flogged and then release him." With loud shouts, however, they persisted in calling for his crucifixion, and their voices prevailed. The verdict of Pilate was that their demand should be granted. So he released the man who had been imprisoned for rebellion and murder, for whom they asked, and he handed Jesus over to them to deal with as they wished. As they led him away they took hold of a certain Simon, a Cyrenian, who was coming in from the country; and after laying the cross on him, they made him carry it behind Jesus. A large crowd of people followed Jesus, including many women who mourned and lamented him. Jesus turned to them and said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me; weep instead for yourselves and for your children for indeed, the days are coming when people will say, 'Blessed are the barren, the wombs that never bore and the breasts that never nursed.' At that time people will say to the mountains, 'Fall upon us!' and to the hills, 'Cover us!' for if these things are done when the wood is green what will happen when it is dry?" Now two others, both criminals, were led away with him to be executed.

When they came to the place called the Skull, they crucified him and the criminals there, one on his right, the other on his left. Then Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, they know not what they do." They divided his garments by casting lots. The people stood by and watched; the rulers, meanwhile, sneered at him and said, "He saved others, let him save himself if he is the chosen one, the Christ of God." Even the soldiers jeered at him. As they approached to offer him wine they called out, "If you are King of the Jews, save yourself." Above him there was an inscription that read, "This is the King of the Jews." Now one of the criminals hanging there reviled Jesus, saying, "Are you not the Christ? Save yourself and us." The other, however, rebuking him, said in reply, "Have you no fear of God, for you are subject to the same condemnation? And indeed, we have been condemned justly, for the sentence we received corresponds to our crimes, but this man has done nothing criminal." Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." He replied to him, "Amen, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise." It was now about noon and darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon because of an eclipse of the sun. Then the veil of the temple was torn down the middle. Jesus cried out in a loud voice, "Father, into your hands I commend my spirit"; and when he had said this he breathed his last.

Here all kneel and pause for a short time.

The centurion who witnessed what had happened glorified God and said, "This man was innocent beyond doubt." When all the people who had gathered for this spectacle saw what had happened, they returned home beating their breasts; but all his acquaintances stood at a distance, including the women who had followed him from Galilee and saw these events.

Reflection Questions

- How did Jesus respond to Pilate's question about His identity? Of what did Pilate find Jesus guilty?
- In what way did popular pressure influence Pilate's decisions?
- What was significant about Jesus' words on the cross?
- What occurred after Jesus called out to the Father?
- Seeing that Simon had been ordered to "carry the cross" for Jesus, how well are you carrying your cross for Him?
