The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

A Message from our Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This weekend, two celebrations dovetail rather appropriately. Our nation recognizes the fathers and father figures in our lives. We thank God for the gift of their example and guidance, asking that they be rewarded for their goodness. And, the Church designates this Sunday as Trinity Sunday. Following the outpouring of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost, we now recall how, through the centuries leading up to Christ, God revealed himself as a loving Father. In Jesus, we see the fullness of that revelation that the one, true God is triune – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. And so, with this concurrent feast, we are reminded that our earthly fathers are meant to model themselves on the Fatherhood of God.

In particular, this weekend we recognize the spiritual fatherhood of our beloved Fr. Francis. After 15 years of faithful service at Infant Jesus, the last three additionally serving here at St. Gerard's and 45 years of priestly ministry, both in missionary work and parishes, Fr. Francis will begin his well-deserved retirement. It's hard to capture in words the immensity of his impact on our community. From sacramental celebrations to visiting the homebound and from offering counsel to those in need to being a joyful witness of Christianity, Fr. Francis has embodied so well the heart of God's fatherly heart. It's fitting then that this weekend, before he leaves us to take up residence in St. John the Evangelist in Center Moriches, we honor him. He goes with our immense gratitude and wishes for a happy, peaceful retirement.

Finally, as the spiritual father of our parish community, I want to express my appreciation to my brother priests and deacons for their inestimable service to our families. As I've said many times before, we are humbled to have been called by God to the ordained ministry. To serve in God's vineyard – especially in this community – is a blessing for us. You and your families are in our prayers each day. Please keep us in yours that we may be faithful and zealous servants after the heart of Jesus. And, please pray for more young men to open their hearts to the call of our heavenly Father to become spiritual fathers in our Church. We need more priests and deacons to minister here on Long Island. Encourage your sons, grandsons, nephews, and other young men to consider prayerfully if the Lord is inviting them into this exciting life.

A Blessed Father's Day to all the Dads in our midst, and may those who have returned to God be forever in the glory of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit!

Sincerely yours in Christ,

This week we return to the liturgical season of Ordinary Time. This Sunday and next Sunday, however, are designated as solemnities, special days that call our attention to central mysteries of our faith. Today, on the first Sunday after Pentecost, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. This feast invites us to consider what we believe about God, who has revealed himself to us in the Trinity—one God in three persons.

The verses of today's Gospel come near the end of Jesus' long discourse at the Last Supper. In the early part of this discourse, as we saw last week on Pentecost, Jesus offers assurances to the disciples. Even though he must leave the disciples, he tells them that they will have a future because of the help he will send them in the Holy Spirit. In this section he focuses more on the shape of the future, which will include Jesus' victory over the world that they will share in. The disciples of Jesus cannot know the future. They can only know that, whatever shape the future takes, they will not have to face it alone. They have the Spirit of Truth, who will continue to provide the teaching of Jesus in the future.

Reading this passage on Trinity Sunday reinforces our understanding of the unity shared by the members of the Trinity. Although the idea of one God in three persons remains a mystery, we have the assurance that, as Jesus and the Father share all, Jesus and the Spirit share all.

Think of the last time you witnessed an act of selfless love in your family. Parents and caregivers of all kinds are called upon to act selflessly every day. Family life calls us to share selfless love with one another.

God is the model for us of selfless love. There was no need for God to create our planet or the creatures that inhabit it; it was an act of selfless love. There was also no need for God to send his only Son to save us. That too was an act of selfless love.

As we draw closer to God and the mystery of the Trinity, we learn about God's love. God has lavished us with love in the persons of the Son and the Spirit, who in turn nurture in us the desire to do the same. When we open ourselves to be filled with an awareness of the divine life within us, we participate in the endless spiral of love that leads to eternal life. Whenever we share selfless love in the family, we are sharing in the life of the Trinity. (Loyola Press)

"Give and gifts will be given to you; a good measure, packed together, shaken down, and overflowing, will be poured into your lap. For the measure with which you measure will in return be measured out to you." Luke 6:38 This is a promise from God that He doesn't need a large amount, but will honor our generosity and obedience. Then, He can do a miracle to multiply and pour out blessings that overflow to our lives and others.

Breaking Open the Word

Reflecting on next Sunday's Gospel before you come to Mass can bring so much more meaning to your experience of the Liturgy. Here's the Gospel for next Sunday. How does this Gospel touch your life?

June 22, 2025

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Luke 9:11b-17

Jesus spoke to the crowds about the kingdom of God, and he healed those who needed to be cured. As the day was drawing to a close, the Twelve approached him and said, "Dismiss the crowd so that they can go to the surrounding villages and farms and find lodging and provisions; for we are in a deserted place here." He said to them, "Give them some food yourselves." They replied, "Five loaves and two fish are all we have, unless we ourselves go and buy food for all these people." Now the men there numbered about five thousand. Then he said to his disciples, "Have them sit down in groups of about fifty." They did so and made them all sit down. Then taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing over them, broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd. They all ate and were satisfied. And when the leftover fragments were picked up, they filled twelve wicker baskets.

Reflection Questions

- Why would the disciples want to send the crowd away?
- What did the disciples think when Jesus told them to feed the crowd?
- How do you feed others through your sharing?
- How does the feeding of the five thousand demonstrate God's ability to provide in scarcity?
- The Gospel is teaching us that, with Jesus, there is more than enough spiritual nourishment to go around. Jesus can satisfy our spiritual hungers, and we can always go back to him for more. As we celebrate the feast of the Body and Blood of Jesus, we are thankful for the gift of the Eucharist, the meal that feeds us on our spiritual journey. Pray this week the words we pray before coming forward to receive the Eucharist at Mass: Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word, and my soul shall be healed.

We want to congratulate all the graduates in our Parish! We are so proud of you!

Before you were even formed, God knew you. While in your Mother's womb, God named you. At your birth, God's breath filled you with life. Today we celebrate what you have become at this moment in time. And so we pray, God of our beginnings, We thank you for the gifts of these graduates; their excitement, their awesome wonder and curiosity, their open speech and encouraging words. Their contributions have blessed and challenged us, and we have become a richer and more diverse community because of them. As they step forward into the world that awaits, comfort their fears with the full knowledge of your divine presence. Strengthen their resolve to walk in the footsteps of Jesus as modern-day disciples in a world that needs their spirit. Guide their feet as they move through life, protecting them from the pitfalls of darkness while they help to lead future generations into the warmth and promise of your light. We ask this blessing upon each of them,

In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

Amen

Save the Date!

Bishop Anthony Ewherido will be visiting Infant Jesus Parish community this Summer and he will be offering a Bible Study course on the Book of Exodus during the week of July 7th . The class will take place at the St. Chares Chapel at 7pm.

Father's Day Prayer

God our Father,

In your wisdom and love you have created us and called us your own. Bless our fathers, that they may be strengthened as Christian fathers. Let the example of their faith and love shine forth. In moments of joy, rejoice with them. In times of struggle, give them your courage and perseverance. Grant that we, their sons and daughters, may honor and appreciate them always with a spirit of profound respect. May the example and prayer of St. Joseph inspire them to live their vocation with courage. Grant this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

We hope all the fathers in our Parish community have a beautiful day celebrating with their families.
