Catholic Ministries Appeal

100% of every dollar raised is restricted to fund the objectives, programs, and mission supported by the Catholic Ministries Appeal, touching each of our 133 parishes and more than 600,000 people each year. Through Communion, we worship together and share in the love and unity of the Trinity. We Participate by serving one another in our Mission to evangelize and share the love of our Faith with others.

Donor Stories of Faith, Gratitude, and Generosity

Behind every donation we receive is a heart moved by gratitude, a desire to give back, or a personal experience of the Church's presence in a time of need.

Linda—Farmingdale, NY

"After my husband passed away, I felt so lost. It was the people at my parish and the counseling I received through Catholic Charities that helped me through. Giving to the Appeal is my way of saying thank you.

It's a gift of gratitude for the love I was shown when I needed it most."

Carlos & Maria—Hempstead, NY

"We came to this country looking for opportunity, but we also found faith. Our children are growing up in a vibrant parish community, attending religious education classes supported by the Appeal. We give so others can experience the same joy we feel being part of the Church here."

Reflecting on next Sunday's Gospel before you come to Mass can bring so much more meaning to your experience of the Liturgy. Here's the Gospel for next Sunday. How does this Gospel touch your life?

August 10, 2025

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 12:32-48

Jesus said to his disciples:

"Do not be afraid any longer, little flock, for your Father is pleased to give you the kingdom. Sell your belongings and give alms. Provide money bags for yourselves that do not wear out, an inexhaustible treasure in heaven that no thief can reach nor moth destroy. For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be.

"Gird your loins and light your lamps and be like servants who await their master's return from a wedding, ready to open immediately when he comes and knocks. Blessed are those servants whom the master finds vigilant on his arrival. Amen, I say to you, he will gird himself, have them recline at table, and proceed to wait on them. And should he come in the second or third watch and find them prepared in this way, blessed are those servants. Be sure of this: if the master of the house had known the hour when the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into. You also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come."

Then Peter said, "Lord, is this parable meant for us or for everyone?" And the Lord replied, "Who, then, is the faithful and prudent steward whom the master will put in charge of his servants to distribute the food allowance at the proper time? Blessed is that servant whom his master on arrival finds doing so. Truly, I say to you, the master will put the servant in charge of all his property. But if that servant says to himself, 'My master is delayed in coming,' and begins to beat the menservants and the maidservants, to eat and drink and get drunk, then that servant's master will come on an unexpected day and at an unknown hour and will punish the servant severely and assign him a place with the unfaithful. That servant who knew his master's will but did not make preparations nor act in accord with his will shall be beaten severely; and the servant who was ignorant of his master's will but acted in a way deserving of a severe beating shall be beaten only lightly. Much will be required of the person entrusted with much, and still more will be demanded of the person entrusted with more."

Reflection Questions

- What practical steps can you take to pursue the kingdom of God above material needs, as Jesus taught?
- What concrete truths do we know from this passage about Jesus' return?
- What questions does His teaching raise for you? What does He leave unanswered?
- In what ways can you cultivate a spirit of readiness and watchfulness in your spiritual life?
- What particular category of people does Jesus give the strongest warning? Why is their behavior so offensive to Jesus? Do you think Jesus is fair? Why?
- What does a life of "faith" and "wisdom" look like? What in your own life would please Jesus? What would disappoint him?

Holy Day of Obligation

Vigil Thursday, August 14th-5pm

Friday, August 15th- 9am, 12pm, and 7pm

This significant feast day recalls the spiritual and physical departure of the Mother of God from the earth, when both her soul and her body were taken into the presence of God to reign as Queen of Heaven and earth.

We recently honored Jesus' grandparents, St. Joachim and St. Anne, on their feast day of July 26th. Let us pray for the grandparents in our parish as they are gifts to our families.

Bless My Grandparents Prayer

Dear Lord,

I pray that you watch over my grandparents.

Please bless them with your love. May you keep them safe and guard their path and protect them from above. I pray that they will always know, and I can help them see, just how much I love them and what they mean to me.

Amen

What is Eucharistic Adoration?

Eucharistic Adoration is when you spend time with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament.

To start Eucharistic Adoration, the priest will place a consecrated host in a monstrance and pray the Exposition of the Blessed Eucharist. You'll then have time with Jesus! During this time, you can pray in whatever way you want, bringing Jesus your needs, desires, fears, regrets, and more. Exposed Adoration officially ends with Benediction. The priest approaches the altar, genuflects and kneels, then incenses the Monstrance from the kneeling position. He stands and faces the Eucharist while praying the closing prayer. Then wearing the humeral veil, a scarf-like garment that covers his hands, the priest steps up and genuflects. He blesses the people using the monstrance or ciborium. The priest will then return the Eucharist to the Tabernacle, ending the time of Adoration. (Dynamic Catholic)
