A Message from our Pastor

As we commence this month dedicated to praying for our beloved dead, we remember in a special way Deacon Pat Gerace. While Deacon Pat did not serve in St. Gerard's Parish directly, he was well known to the wider community because of his pastoral skill and involvement in many ministries that have helped our fellow parishioners.

Deacon Pat shared 60 glorious years of marriage with his beloved wife, Irene, a partnership built on devotion, laughter, and unshakable faith. Together they raised a loving family—Brian Barrett, Gina Rose, Charles Gerace, and Lenore Sabella—who will forever cherish his wisdom, strength, and humor. Pat was the proud grandfather of 20 grandchildren and 9 great-grandchildren, each of whom brought him immense pride and joy. He is also survived by his loving sister, Marguerite.

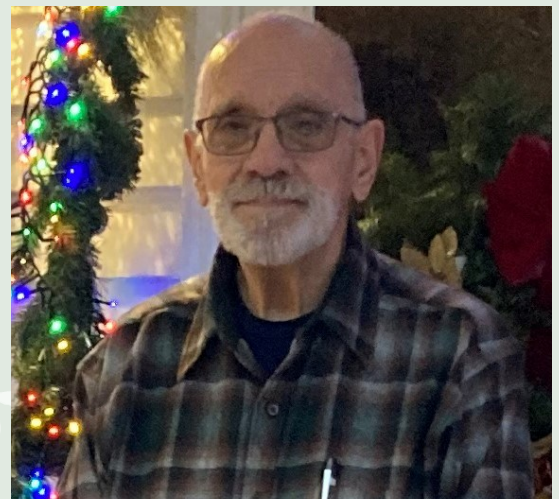

Deacon Pat dedicated his life to serving others. He spent 20 years with the NYPD, the majority of his service spent with the Emergency Services Unit, where his courage and compassion touched countless lives. Following his retirement from the NYPD, he continued his mission of service as a Deacon for 38 years, ministering at St. Mark's Roman Catholic Church in Shoreham and Infant Jesus Church in Port Jefferson. His calling extended beyond the pulpit—he was deeply involved with Hope House Ministries for over 35 years, where he guided individuals through recovery as a drug and alcohol counselor. Pat was also the founding director of Pax Christi Hospitality as well as the founding director of Monfort Therapeutic Residence, a program his son continues to lead—an enduring testament to Deacon Pat vision and compassion.

Outside of his many ministries, Pat found joy in life's simple pleasures—smoking a good cigar, tending to his garden, and sharing lively conversations about politics. A proud member of the Knights of Columbus, Rocky Point chapter, he also found fellowship and strength through Cursillo and the St. Mark's Men's Group.

To those who knew him, Deacon Pat was more than a husband, father, and deacon—he was a mentor, a friend, and a beacon of faith. His wit, love, courage, resilience, and unwavering belief in God left an indelible mark on everyone he met. He had a rare gift for making every person feel like family and for reminding others of their worth and purpose.

His life was a living sermon—one of compassion, integrity, and boundless love. Though he will be deeply missed, his legacy continues through the countless lives he inspired and the family he so dearly loved.

May his soul and all the souls of the faithful departed, rest in peace!

Catholic Ministries Appeal

100% of every dollar raised is restricted to fund the objectives, programs, and mission supported by the Catholic Ministries Appeal, touching each of our 133 parishes and more than 600,000 people each year. Through Communion, we worship together and share in the love and unity of the Trinity. We Participate by serving one another in our Mission to evangelize and share the love of our Faith with others.

Donor Stories of Faith, Gratitude, and Generosity

Behind every donation we receive is a heart moved by gratitude, a desire to give back, or a personal experience of the Church's presence in a time of need.

Linda—Farmingdale, NY

"After my husband passed away, I felt so lost. It was the people at my parish and the counseling I received through Catholic Charities that helped me through. Giving to the Appeal is my way of saying thank you. It's a gift of gratitude for the love I was shown when I needed it most."

Carlos & Maria—Hempstead, NY

"We came to this country looking for opportunity, but we also found faith. Our children are growing up in a vibrant parish community, attending religious education classes supported by the Appeal. We give so others can experience the same joy we feel being part of the Church here."

Living in Generosity

Giving is a practical way of living out generous lives. It teaches us to live not with a mindset of scarcity but with a spirit of abundance. By giving away a portion of what we have, we learn to value what remains and use it more effectively.

Feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica

John 2:13-22

Since the Passover of the Jews was near, Jesus went up to Jerusalem. He found in the temple area those who sold oxen, sheep, and doves, as well as the money-changers seated there. He made a whip out of cords and drove them all out of the temple area, with the sheep and oxen, and spilled the coins of the money-changers and overturned their tables, and to those who sold doves he said, "Take these out of here, and stop making my Father's house a marketplace." His disciples recalled the words of Scripture, Zeal for your house will consume me. At this the Jews answered and said to him, "What sign can you show us for doing this?" Jesus answered and said to them, "Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up." The Jews said, "This temple has been under construction for forty-six years, and you will raise it up in three days?" But he was speaking about the temple of his Body. Therefore, when he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this, and they came to believe the Scripture and the word Jesus had spoken.

Reflection Questions

- Jesus takes strong action to cleanse the temple of distractions from worship. What distractions exist in your own life, keeping you from worshipping God with everything you have?
- How did Jesus' statement in verse 16 imply that He is the Messiah?
- Why do you think Jesus chose the moments of feasting, parties, and religious holidays to disclose His identity as the Messiah?
- Jesus' words and actions in cleansing the temple reminded His disciples of an Old Testament verse, "Zeal for your house will consume me" (Psalm 69:10). Look up a definition of the word "zeal" and explain how this verse applied to Jesus.
- After Jesus' death and resurrection, the disciples looked back and believed the scripture and the words which Jesus had spoken (end of verse 22). What does this suggest about their understanding at the time of the cleansing of the temple?

All You Need to Know about All Saints' and All Souls' Days

It seems unusual that our Church liturgical calendar schedules two major celebrations on days that are back to back.

But that is precisely the situation with the solemnity of All Saints, a liturgical feast, and the Commemoration of the Faithful Departed (All Souls), a liturgical observance. All Saints is a churchwide holy day of obligation and normally celebrated on Nov. 1. If the first day of November falls on a Saturday or Monday, at least in the United States, the obligation to attend Mass is abrogated. All Souls' Day takes place on Nov. 2, unless it falls on a Sunday, then the celebration is held Nov. 3.

During these early November celebrations, those of us still living (the Church militant) unite our hearts with, and in a special way remember, the faithful departed, whether they be in heaven (Church triumphant) or in purgatory (Church suffering).

All Saints' Day

All Saints' Day, which began most likely as All Martyrs' Day, can be traced to the earliest Christians. By the third century, the followers of Christ were annually honoring their brothers and sisters who had given their lives (been martyred) while witnessing for and defending Jesus Christ. Typically, on the anniversary of a martyr's death, those living would gather to remember and offer prayers at the tomb or place where the deceased had died. Tombs were sometimes decorated and altars built over the tomb. "From the third century the anniversary of a martyr's death, called his 'birthday,' was commemorated at his grave by a celebration" (Henry Chadwick, "The Early Church," p. 271; Penguin Books, 1993). The belief among the first Christians, which continues today, is that believers who died defending Christ were borne by angels to heaven and are face to face with the living God, in the presence of the beatific vision.

In those first centuries, especially during the savage reign of the Roman Emperor Diocletian (r. 284-305), there were more and more Christians who accepted death at the hands of the Romans rather than deny Christ, rather than worship false gods or the personage of the emperor. Additionally, others who had publicly confessed their Christian faith (confessors) and somehow survived the Romans were also honored. Thus the number of martyrs and confessors became greater than the opportunities to give each one an anniversary celebration, and the need for a common feast day was recognized. By the fifth century there is evidence of locations, such as in Antioch, where the fledgling Church had set aside the first Sunday following Pentecost to collectively honor these holy and courageous people.

All Souls' Day

Offering prayers for those who have died is ancient in origin. In the Old Testament's Second Book of Maccabees, written around 100 B.C., Judas Maccabeus orders his army to pray and offer sacrifices on behalf of their fallen comrades. Tombs found in the Roman catacombs are inscribed with prayer requests for the deceased. The second-century writer Tertullian wrote in an essay, "Monogamy," about a woman praying for her deceased spouse: "Indeed she prays for his soul and asks that he may, while waiting, find rest; and that he may share in the first resurrection. And each year, on the anniversary of his death, she offers the sacrifice."

The Commemoration of the Faithful Departed, or All Souls' Day, evolved onto the Church calendar long after All Saints' Day. Sometime between 998 and 1030, St. Odilo, the abbot at the Benedictine Monastery in Cluny, France, encouraged all the monks to pray for the souls of those who had died, those waiting the joys of heaven. He instituted this commemoration on the day after All Saints' Day, and soon other religious orders and churches began, on that same date, to annually remember all who had died. Remembering and praying for the faithful departed is tied directly to our belief in purgatory.

On All Souls' Day the universal Church prays for all those in purgatory, people who were much like us, whose offense may have been less than ours. By pleading for them, we are inspired to lead purer lives. On that day, and during the entire month of November, we remember our departed brethren as we go to the cemetery where they are buried, attain indulgences for them, give alms, do some good work, ask for Masses to be said in remembrance, all on behalf of those close to us and to others we may have neglected during the year.

We also light candles, and in some parishes the faithful display pictures of their deceased loved ones in the church. Church bells are sometimes rung to remind everyone to pray for the poor souls in purgatory.
